DEDICATION

With deep affection and sincere appreciation, the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference dedicates this 1962 Annual Report to Mrs. C. H. Boyd.

Mildred Oglesby Boyd has given many years of fruitful service to the women of this conference. She served for three years as treasurer of the New Bern District and for five years as secretary of promotion for her district. In 1956 she was called to broader service when she became conference secretary of supply work. In 1958 she was elected secretary of promotion for the conference. To all these offices she has brought a joyful dedication that has been an inspiration to her co-workers; she has given her time and energy without thought of herself. As secretary of promotion, she has been concerned with putting new ideas and plans into effect which have involved much detail work but she has never shown impatience nor discouragement. Surely she has an inner source of grace.

It can truly be said of Mildred Boyd "To know her is to love her."

With a profound sense of gratitude, the women of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society dedicate this Twenty-second Annual Report to Mildred Oglesby Boyd.

MILDRED OGLESBY BOYD

FOREWORD

It is hard to realize all that has made this Twenty-second Annual Report possible. Will you take time to listen with your mind and heart to the accomplishments, the needs and the challenges these pages reveal?

Our Annual Meeting in Wilson was such a rich source of inspiration. All of us came away with a new song in our hearts, a song that gave us hope and courage to face and solve many factors confronting us.

In the words of our president, Mrs. Turlington: "Take any picture of the world you wish. It is our world, but it is first God's world. He has not abandoned it or abdicated. He sustains it, loves it, judges it, and redeems it. It is His will that His light shall penetrate to the end of the earth and to every depth of human life," we found a great message.

Then as many of us witnessed the challenge of the Sixth General Assembly in Atlantic City, we heard and faced the theme of "The Church in the World." Many wonderful solutions were presented but none more impressive than those of our Division president, Mrs. J. Fount Tillman, who asked "What note should be sounded in this meeting? Here we hope to see the church functioning as God's mission. Here we hope to recognize the church as a channel for the Holy Spirit, witnessing to the gospel in the world. We must be like the Marys who go and tell of the new dimensions of life." She compared the Convention Hall to a hall of mirrors and said, "Let us hope that in this hall of mirrors, as we hear and participate in the worship, we shall come to the mirror of truth, a true reflection of ourselves, our organization, our motives, our challenges, our aspirations." Can we pass these truths by lightly?

Today as we face the third goal of the quadrennium, "Frontiers That Call Us," we gaze in this mirror of truth and realize our great mission to make Jesus Christ the Light of the world.

Sincerely,
MARJORIE J. DOUB

CONFERENCE HYMN

O Master of the waking world
Who hast the nations in Thy heart—
The heart that bled and broke to send
God's love to earth's remotest part:
Show us anew in Calvary
The wondrous power that makes men free.

On every side the walls are down,
The gates swing wide to every land,
The restless tribes and races feel
The pressure of Thy pierced hand;
Thy way is in the sea and air,
Thy world is open everywhere.

We hear the throb of surging life,
The clank of chains, the curse of greed,
The moan of pain, the futile cries
Of superstition's cruel creed;
The peoples hunger for Thee, Lord,
The isles are waiting for Thy word.

Thy witness in the souls of men,
Thy Spirit's ceaseless, brooding power,
In lands where shadows hide the light,
Await a new creative hour:
O mighty God, set us aflame
To show the glory of Thy Name. Amen.

—Frank Mason North.

UNITED NATIONS HYMN

(Tune, Love Divine)

Thou whose breathing fills our bodies, Thou whose pulse the world obeys,
Tune our minds to heed Thy rhythm known along the starry way.
Swing the nations to Thy measure, bid men's hatreds turn to song;
Fill us, thrill us with Thy music, end earth's bitterness and wrong.

Thou whose order rules the atom, Thou whose law propels the sea,
Bring, O bring Thy warring peoples close within Thy harmony.
God of Beauty, heal our madness, God of love, our battles end.
Show the unity that binds us, foe to foe, or friend to friend.

Thou who lightest with Thy glory leaf and lake and cloud and star,
Light the hearts of men to justice, show us kindred as we are.
Pour Thy mighty joy upon us, Thou whose grandeur filleth space,
Claim Thy cosmic sons and daughters—unify the human race.

INSTALLATION SERVICE

Woman's Society of Christian Service

Leader: You have been chosen by the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference as their leaders for the coming years. They are entrusting to you a sacred responsibility. Upon your faithful work depends not only the vitality of this important organization, but also an outreach of services that encircles the world. Those whom God summons into leadership are called to deep devotion and sacrificial self-giving. There is nothing trivial in His service. Any trust in His kingdom is large with opportunity. Do you thoughtfully and sincerely accept your individual responsibilities, and will you seek, under God's guidance, to fulfill them to His honor and glory and to the coming of His kingdom?

Officers: We do, with God's help.

Leader: By your example as an officer in the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will you strive to attain for yourself and imbue others with a spirit of joy and enthusiasm for the work of the Church and the Woman's Society?

Officers: We will, with God's help.

Leader: Let us pray. (Officers kneel)

O God, Our Father, look upon these women who accept leadership in the affairs of Thy kingdom. Empower them, and fill them with that love which alone can overcome the world. Grant, we beseech Thee, that by the indwelling of Thy Holy Spirit they may be enlightened and strengthened for Thy service. Amen.

Will you rise now and receive your charge?

(Officers rise)

Leader: Ye are the salt of the earth, ye are the light of the world, ye are the children of God. I charge you in this hour:

Let your light so shine before men
That they may see your good works,
And glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Leader: I charge you to make God's love leap into life in all your relationships. I charge you to lead others to deeper faith in the power of love by the service rendered through you and through the Woman's Society.

Leader: Prayer for the new officers.

Announcements: In order to clarify the matter of churches that operate on the "Unified Budget," Mrs. Turlington stated that our funds are not included in it. No one is a member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service unless she joins, as it is a voluntary organization. Our ministers are taught a course on our work at Duke and they are asked not to schedule any meeting without first checking our church calendar. We, in turn, are asked to consult with the district superintendent before we set dates. Also, our women are urged to push "worship" in our churches in order that a more reverent atmosphere be created in our congregations. Mrs. C. H. Boyd requested local secretaries of Promotion to consult our district superintendent about the number of churches in districts and to ask our pastors for use of the Conference Journal.

That delegates vote at the Annual Meeting on the ratification of the Charter on Racial Policy and that the Conference president notify each society that this vote will be taken. Mrs. Vereen moved that this be accepted. Seconded, this carried. Mrs. C. H. These colleges will be informed of these scholarships, but each student selected will be allowed to select the college of her choice. Each district is asked to send in recommendations for these scholarships. Blanks for these will be drawn up.

Mrs. Vereen: Concerning the policy of spending, Mrs. Vereen requested that all districts operate alike. She recommends that the registration fee, room and board be paid for delegates to the Annual Meeting and to the School of Missions. Individuals are asked to assume their own transportation to these meetings.

Pledge Service: Mrs. Vereen announced the plans for this service and asked that we encourage gifts for the World Bank Candle. She asked that a vote to be taken about individual candles being used in this service.

Motion: Mrs. Benson moved that we use any plans Mrs. Vereen makes for this service. Seconded and carried.

Raleigh Mission Area: Under unfinished business, Mrs. Vereen moved that we cooperate with the Raleigh City Board of Missions in setting up a project there and ask the Woman's Division to send a worker there as soon as possible. Seconded and passed.

Report: Miss Sarah McCracken, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, presented the following recommendation: The Scholarship Committee recommends that each district of the North Carolina Conference set up a District Scholarship Committee composed of the following officers: President, Treasurer, Secretaries of Youth, Student and Missionary Personnel, with the president serving as chairman for the first year. This committee will receive and review applications, interview candidates and refer acceptable applicants to the Conference Scholarship Committee. Each district president will receive application blanks, dispense these to candidates and set the dates for meetings. A spring meeting date to be set by the Conference Executive Committee in order for all applications to be received with the limited time.

Motion: Miss McCracken moved that this recommendation be accepted. Seconded and passed.

Mrs. Johnson: It was a treat to have our former president, Mrs. Pierce Johnson, with us. She spoke of how she missed us and brought us the following new year's wish: "May you have enough happiness to keep you sweet; enough trials to keep you strong; enough sorrow to keep you human; enough hope to make your heart sing; enough labor to keep you from rust; enough leisure to make you broad; enough religion to make you value the best; enough love of Christ in your soul to make you glad to serve."

Recommendations: The following report was given by the Finance Chairman, Mrs. L. C. Vereen. Each was voted on separately.

We recommend:

(1) That we pay $7.50 toward the expenses of each District Secretary of Student Work to the State Student Conference at High Point, North Carolina, January 26-29, 1962. Mrs. Crawford moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(2) That we pay the expenses of our Conference Secretary of Children's Work to the Children's Conference in Nashville, Tenn., March 13-14, 1962. Miss Staton moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(3) That we send the Conference President, Recording Secretary, Secretary of Promotion, and Chairman of Public Relations to the Public Relations Seminar in Nashville, Tenn., February 19-20, 1962. Mrs. Dunn moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(4) That we assume our proportionate share along with the Youth Organization and the Student Organization of our Conference in financing the expense of a Youth and Student delegate to the sixth Assembly in Atlantic City, N. J., May 15-18, 1962. Mrs. Bryant moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(5) That we send ten delegates to the World Affairs Conference in Chapel Hill March 8, 1962. Mrs. Hauser moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(6) That we send a delegate from each of the following districts to the Leadership Workshop in Chapel Hill July 16-19, 1962—Durham, Elizabeth City, Goldsboro, Wilmington. Mrs. Dunn moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(7) That this Conference assume the salary of our new missionary to Japan, Ann Page Brooks. Mrs. Braswell moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(8) That we send a portion of our over and above pledge monies at the end of this current year for the Emma Gray Girls' Dormitory at Paine College, Augusta, Georgia. Mrs. Thompson moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

(9) That we ask each local society to send at least ten cents (10¢) per member as a love gift for the Sixth Assembly, this amount to be sent with the Fourth Quarterly Report in April to the District Treasurer, who will in turn remit it to the Conference Treasurer to be given to the Conference President to take to the Assembly. Mrs. Bryant moved that this be accepted. Seconded and carried.

Reports: Mrs. Allen C. Lee reported that the Committee on Nominations was at work and open to suggestions. Mrs. Dunn announced that Annual Meeting plans were shaping up nicely. The World Federation Dinner will be a banquet on Wednesday night at 5:30. She asked for the use of any costumes and dolls which members might have. She also stressed that all reports be kept within the time limit.

Announcements: Mrs. Turlington made the following announcements: Mr. Henry Maddrey, husband of Moselle, former Conference officer, is very sick at Duke. The secretary was instructed to write her. All districts are urged to remember the offering of at least 10¢ per member to be sent to the district treasurer for the Assembly. The North Carolina Council of Women's Organizations has asked all organizations to cooperate by filling out and sending in the blanks recently sent out. These are to be sent to Mrs. John Crawford, 3204 Clark Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina. The fall meeting of our Executive Committee will be held the last week in September.

Mrs. Nicks: At this time Mrs. Turlington presented Mrs. Robert Nicks who could not greet us earlier on account of illness. It is always so good to see Mrs. Nicks and Mrs. Martin, who are such gracious hostesses.

Meditation: Mrs. Allen C. Lee brought some lovely thoughts for us to carry on our homeward way. She read the poem, "The Going of His Feet," by Harry Kemp, taken from "The Plain Man's Prayers." She closed with the benediction. The meeting adjourned to meet in Wilson on March 19 at the Enlarged Executive Committee Dinner Meeting.

THE MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

Mrs. H. C. Turlington

This quadrennium is a period of study and appraisal. Every agency and every local church of Methodism is challenged to re-examine its own reason for being, its objectives, plans, and programs. The Board of Missions of which we are a part is making a study of the missionary outreach of the church. What is the mission of the church today? How are missions related to this mission? What is our mission? This study deals with four areas of concern—Faith, Factors, Frontiers and Unity. "The Faith That Compels Us" was our theme last year and this year we are thinking of "The Factors That Confront Us," yet "The Frontiers That Call Us" and "The Unity That Unites Us in Mission and Service" are so closely connected it is difficult to separate them. We must become involved in this study and we may find that not only are New Churches Needed for New Times, but also new Societies and new individuals—individuals who have discovered anew the redemptive power of Jesus Christ.

Six months before young Tom Dooley died he wrote from his hospital in the jungles of Laos to a friend: "Know that this passing and precarious time in history will demand much of you. It will maroon the hesitant, but inspire the brave. Stand up and shout, 'This is my time and my place in this time.' And seek this place . . . seek greater things than the material. Do not aim for just a certain socio-economic position in society. Seek something beyond the split-level ranch house and the two-car garage. Become supremely aware of and intimately involved in the great issues of your day. You have the potential for great deeds and today demands deeds. Human deeds. Principles enunciated and hopes expressed are not enough."

There are revolutionary forces loose in the secular and spiritual world today and immense changes are taking place in every sphere of human life, but it is a great time, a challenging time to be alive. Our Church, cognizant of these forces, is seeking to find how it can meet them and witness to its Christian faith. New patterns of family life, population explosion, international tensions, technical revolution, militarism, communism, the cold war, are just some of the factors confronting us in this rapidly changing world to which we witness for Christ. As forceful, frightful, and frustrating as these factors are, we will have a better approach to them and will be able to work more effectively if we look first at some of the things in ourselves, in our society or church, and our manner of witnessing which are not pleasing to our Lord.

Indifference, apathy, secularism, need for more implementation of our purpose, and a better interpretation of our program, of an increase in giving, and of a re-examination of our sense of values, a lag in membership, lack of communication with pastors, resistance to change, and a need for the strengthening of the spiritual life; and others according to the society and the individuals. Perhaps if we can solve a couple of these factors then will come the solution of the others.

Haven't you met satisfaction with the status quo when you tried to change circles or to introduce an innovation in policy or program? Has it been easy to interest some of our members in conditions beyond the local church? At the Conference on Church and Community in Nashville last month, one of the speakers said oftentimes it was "the cussedness of the saints" which made it difficult for a church to meet changing conditions. Dr. James W. Sells once said that it is possible that the grandfather in the country cemetery has more influence on the program of the church than the grandson living in the community. Change is inevitable, and today it comes with ever accelerating speed. Are we able to keep pace with changes and relate our Christian faith to them?

A statement was made in the Methodist Story that the average citizen of the twentieth century has almost lost the sense of personal responsibility for witnessing to his faith and that the Great Commission has been so generalized that it is almost meaningless. We have been told that we have inherited a religion which we have not experienced. Bishop Raines said, "It is my conviction that this has happened to the liberal sector of Christianity—faith in and experience of Jesus Christ as Lord has faded until the radiance which alone flows from knowing Jesus Christ as Lord has gone from us."

If we believe that Jesus Christ is Lord, we will be compelled to express outwardly what we experience inwardly, and we will witness to the Gospel of Christ wherever we are and in every situation. This will not always be easy for we witness in a world in which man can smash atoms and put man into orbit about the earth but cannot solve his problems in human relations. It is a world of vast economic problems and political instability, a world hungry for peace but where war might be set off at any time, a world where there are fears, prejudices, hatred, greed and selfishness, a world that needs a church whose mission is to change lives.

On our flight from Nashville, looking out at the white clouds on which the sun was shining and for which the sky made a very blue background one could not help but marvel at the greatness of God, and then came the thought of how even more wonderful than this beauty is the change that God can make in human lives surrendered to His Will. One of the most outstanding and heart-warming aspects in the appearances of Colonel John Glenn, especially before the Senate Committee, was his quiet witnessing of his faith in God.

In order that officers might better understand some of the factors facing our church and meet their responsibilities more intelligently they are given the privilege of attending different meetings. Last July, I attended the Jurisdictional Town and Country Conference at Lake Junaluska, and in February, a Conference on Church and Community and a Public Relations Seminar in Nashville. In addition to these were the regular annual meetings such as the Jurisdiction School Missions at Junaluska and our own School of Missions at Duke.

This is the year of the Sixth Assembly which will meet in Atlantic City, May 15-18. The delegation from the North Carolina Conference will include the president, vice-president, secretary of the Wesleyan Service Guild, a representative from each district, one youth and one student delegate, Mrs. Hubert A. Davis from the Woman's Division, Mrs. R. L. Jerome from the Jurisdiction, and many visitors. Every local society has an opportunity to participate through the study of the theme, "The Church and the World," and through the Assembly offering to be placed on the altar by the Conference presidents. Because of the great need this offering will be designated Funds for Scholarships in the Secondary Schools and Colleges of the Woman's Division.

We want you to know how your Executive Committee has been meeting some of its problems. Last year it was reported that there were three possibilities under consideration for the running of the Student Center at East Carolina College. It was decided, for at least the present, to make it a cooperative project of the Inter-conference Committee and the Woman's Division. This is an opportunity for two agencies of the church to work together. Miss Mamie Chandler is completing her work at the Center. Under her guidance, this work came into being and has expanded until it is too much for one person. We cannot adequately express our appreciation of her work, but she will find her reward in the young people with whom she has worked, especially in those who have gone out from this Center into full-time Christian service. There is one more bit of information about this Center few of you know. Just before the Christmas holidays there arose a need for more help at the Center. The local ladies filled this need until the first of the year, and then our Secretary of Student Work, Mrs. W. Taylor Long, answered our call for help and has been there since school opened the first of the year.

Our Scholarship Committee has been rethinking our program for scholarships. We are taking care of our girls at Pfeiffer College but the Executive Meeting in January voted to give scholarships to girls going to Louisburg, Methodist College, or Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount. These scholarships will be handled first through the districts and all information will be available through the district presidents.

We are glad that we can report to you that we have a new special term missionary, a North Carolina girl, Anne Page Brooks, from Roxboro who is now in Japan. We still have Sudie Hunt Doughton of Durham in Chile and our two Rural Workers, Miss Rebecca Modellmog and Mrs. Carl Mayrör in the Pembroke area. We are most grateful for what these workers are doing and for them. So many calls have come to us for workers, but we have been unable to answer them because no workers are available unless some other work closes.

One of the greatest problems facing our church is lack of missionary personnel. Perhaps part of the responsibility for this situation can be traced to us. What have we as parents, as church members, as members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service done to enlist new workers? The church has hoped to find replacements among our students, but many of them are questioning the relevancy of the institutional church in today's world. J. Harry Haines said that when he asked a group of youth in a suburbau British church "What is the faith that compels us?" the answer was, "What is faith? How can we be sure any more?" Workers with students emphasize the fact that they are asking many questions and are more critical of the way the church moves in a world changing so fast as to confound many. These are intelligent young people who are thinking seriously, who have much to offer, but what of its direction? They live in a space age or a nuclear age while many of us as members of the local churches have not passed far beyond the age of the Model-T in our thinking. The church must keep apace, and the church is you and I. One worker said, "We cannot recruit the unevangelized." Isn't that an indictment? Why are they unevangelized?

There is one part of our work with which we are deeply concerned and that is in the field of membership. We are not concerned because we want numbers but because we need these women who are not members and they need us. The Woman's Society of Christian Service is an organization which opens the door to a fellowship as wide as the church itself. It offers an opportunity of Christian service to every woman regardless of talents and economic status. In it women bring the service of their possessions, minds, hands, and spirits to witness in the church, the community, and world. Every Methodist woman should be a member. Does the answer lie in us as to why so many are not? In her letter last fall to Conference Secretaries, Mrs. E. U. Robinson, Chairman Committee on Spiritual Life for the Woman's Divisions, listed six questions her committee studied which I would like to give you:

1. How can the Woman's Society and Guild help the local church be a redemptive fellowship?

2. Do I see Christ as Savior—a life-changing Savior?

3. How do I help people recognize God as Lord and Savior?

4. Do I see all people as a part of the redemptive fellowship?

5. Do we, the Woman's Society and Guild, magnify Christ in our program?

6. Is the program fulfilling the Purpose of the Woman's Division?

During the past year, we have heard and read many things about Christianity and the church and the Methodist Church in particular. Much has been pessimistic, but I feel there is much cause for optimism and I would like to leave with you a quotation from the study book for the World Council of Churches, "Jesus Christ the Light of the World." "Take any picture of the world you wish. It is our world, but it is first God's world. He has not abandoned it or abdicated. He sustains it, loves it, judges and redeems it. It is His plan that His Light shall penetrate the ends of the earth and to every depth of human life." The World Council bore testimony to this but also said that the world would need witness that it is God's world and that it must be through us that God speaks to man's fears, frustrations, hunger, and needs. It is through us that His plan must be carried out. Will you accept the commission?

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT

Mrs. Sam A. Dunn

The work of the vice-presidents throughout the Conference lies mainly in the field of planning and building a complete program of education and worship for the Woman's Societies. As chairman of the committee on program, the vice-president, with the members of her committee, carries the responsibility for planning stimulating programs for the general meetings and for the circle meetings, keeping in mind the importance of the program given at the circle meetings; it is in these groups that we consistently reach most of our members. Studies and special days must be worked into the total program to the end that the women may know the vast scope of the work we do and catch a vision of millions of Methodist women, throughout the world, working together to proclaim the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

A good program has good results. It gives the Methodist woman a concern for persons and ideas far beyond her family and home, her church and parsonage; it will lead a woman to face social issues which do not concern her personally but which, nevertheless, must be faced and a solution found.

The Methodist woman has a world outlook and our program gives it to her.

REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY

Mrs. H. W. Doub

Aside from performing the usual duties of this office for the past year, I have had many helpful and interesting experiences.

I attended the Southeastern Jurisdiction School of Missions at Lake Junaluska in July. There we had an excellent clinic of the secretaries from the sixteen conferences represented taking part and sharing ideas and experiences. Therefore we learned many helpful things which I in turn have tried to pass on.

At our conference School of Missions at Duke University, I held three clinics for the secretaries in our nine districts and also for all local secretaries attending. There we especially stressed the great importance of keeping records and the correct use of terminology, both written and spoken at all times. Also the value of study in order to be able to promote all lines of our work and help bring about "the wholeness of our program."

Today, as we begin our twenty-second Annual Meeting, we meet with a great deal of expectancy. We come hungry for knowledge and inspiration. We are going to hear many wonderful reports. Many and almost unbelievable statistics will be given. We will hear wonderful plans and thrilling challenges will come to us.

In all the joy and pride of our many achievements, may each of us remember the following things: While we feel that our good reports and our glowing words are surely not displeasing to our heavenly Father, yet by all divine guidance given to us, we must realize that after all it is only by the sincerity of our daily witness that we will be judged. May He "show us anew in Calvary the wondrous power that makes men free."

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR RECORDING SECRETARIES

Since the Woman's Society of Christian Service is such a large and important organization, it cannot be emphasized too forcibly that the Recording Secretary has much to do with the promotion of many things most vital to our work.

In order to bring our terminology up to the standards of our other national organizations, we must insist that the correct terms be used at all times. We must be alert to the many changes taking place each year and keep our speech and records in line with these.

Feeling that it is a great challenge to bring our efforts up to the highest level, we must keep neat and permanent records for the preservation of history. Our files must include the minutes, a list of all who have received special memberships, the report books of the Secretary of Promotion and anything pertaining to the history of the society.

As the Recording Secretary is third in line to preside, she must know good parliamentary procedure. Unless a regular Parliamentarian is appointed, she serves in that capacity and catches the omissions of the presiding officer. It is vital that she know the constitution and by-laws.

For the interrelation of all lines of work, she must know the total scope and program of the Woman's Division, for how can she accurately record and work with all lines of work if she is not familiar with them? She should encourage the use of the Division and Conference Annual Reports and the art of concise reporting. She must insist on a study and comparison of the statistical reports in order to see how each society measures up.

So in all the many routine jobs which fall to the lot of a secretary, she should always do her very best and remember that her office is a very important one. She should radiate happiness in all she does and ever strive to be that "good right arm" which every president needs so much.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR TREASURERS

To be stewards of Christ is a high and sacred calling. God owns all and has entrusted to us all that we have, to be used in preparing the way for His Kingdom on earth. Money, time, strength, love, hope and courage constitute this sacred trust as we help to meet the needs of others. Indeed we share with each other this particular opportunity of rendering a good accounting for the manner in which we receive, record and disburse the funds which others entrust to us. We recommend:

1. That the treasurers study pages 50-54 in "A Guide" to be sure that the policies of the Woman's Division are followed regarding monies entrusted to treasurers.
2. That treasurers re-study the duties and responsibilities of the Finance Committee on page 41 of "A Guide," and that each treasurer strive to have an active Finance Committee in her local society.
3. That emphasis be given to the pledge service in May, at which time the program and needs of the Woman's Division are interpreted to the local Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild.
4. That the pledge service be held at the General Meeting of the Woman's Society and not at the Circle meetings.
5. That we continue to encourage giving to Special Memberships, In Remembrance Gifts, World Bank, and the Special World Bank Gift of $111.00.
6. That offerings made as "Outgrowth of Studies" be directed to the projects listed on the current Study and Action Leaflet.
7. That Methodist women and others be encouraged to include in their wills gifts to the Woman's Division.
8. That it be remembered that gifts for other organizations, such as CARE, UNICEF, MCOR, Division of National Missions, and Division of World Missions should be sent to these organizations direct rather than through the channels of the Woman's Society. Their projects are not projects of the Woman's Division.

MRS. L. C. VEREEN, Treasurer.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF CHILDREN'S WORK

Mrs. J. S. Henninger

The children of The Methodist Church throughout the North Carolina Conference recently completed the study of missionary units on South America.

In Sunday school and additional sessions the boys and girls have become more aware of how the church in South America, through dedicated men and women, is bringing Jesus Christ to that continent.

Confronted by a world made small by modern means of transportation and communication the need is stressed for better understanding of people to whom we are so closely drawn. We are coming to realize that the foundation for this understanding must be laid in childhood. Children must be helped to know the "oneness" of mankind; and that all people are the children of the same creator Father. "The everyday lives of parents and teachers must in every respect exemplify these ideals and values; otherwise our words are hollow phrases."

Missionary education leads children to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour and to see that they, too, can have a part in sending the gospel to people around the world. Missionary education provides the opportunity to demonstrate their faith in Him and love for others in acts of brotherhood.

Christian leaders have an essential place in bringing about a united world, in increasing good will, and establishing the Christian way of life. This is part of the task of workers with children in the total program of missionary education.

An age that uses nuclear energy to project a man into space can also provide ways to develop understanding, concern, and action as tools for peace.

Statistical Summary

Seventeen workshops were held by district secretaries and directors of Children's Work in cooperation with the churchwide district institutes held during the fall. It is estimated that 155 leaders of children attended the workshops.

District and local secretaries have availed themselves of various training opportunities, such as district missionary institutes, Christian workers schools, seminars, and the Conference School of Missions.

The use of the Children's Service Fund Remittance Blank requires continual promotion. The blank is provided for use by the General Board of Education and the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Secretaries should be encouraged to hold weekday additional sessions. One hour on Sunday is not adequate for Christian education.

There is a decrease in giving to the Children's Service Fund. This fund relates the children to the great missionary enterprise of their church. "All offerings taken during additional sessions on missions shall go to the Children's Service Fund. Offerings taken in additional sessions other than those held on missions may go to the Children's Service Fund." (C. W. Handbook).

District secretaries send excellent reports on the sharing activities of the children. This phase of the work is broad in scope and varied in interest. The gifts cover a wide range from funds to MCOR, CARE, UNICEF and Children's TV to Chilean Relief and a Bible for the sanctuary.

Whatever progress has been achieved in the area of Children's Work during the past four years is due in large part to the dedicated effort of the district secretaries. I am deeply grateful for their enthusiasm, cooperation and understanding.

We know that the effectiveness of the program for children depends on the leaders in the local churches. Constructive plans may be formulated, basic resources and other materials made available, and a program fully outlined but unless the secretary of the local church makes them come alive in her work with children they can be of no effect.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CHILDREN'S WORK

Missionary education as a part of the total program helps create Christian attitudes in children and promotes fellowship and sharing with others. We recommend:

1. That the Committee on Nominations of the local Woman's Society of Christian Service give thoughtful consideration in the choosing of a secretary of Children's Work, emphasizing that she should be an active worker with children of the Methodist Church's plan for children.

2. That secretaries of Children's Work avail themselves of the regular training opportunities offered by the church.

3. That secretaries of Children's Work cooperate with the superintendent of the Children's Division and with the district and conference directors of Children's Work in the total plan of the church for children.

4. That all offerings taken in additional sessions be channeled through the Children's Service Fund following the pattern approved by the Interboard Committee on Missionary Education.

5. That secretaries of Children's Work cooperate with the Department of Christian Social Relations in plans for action recommended by the Woman's Division; that secretaries encourage the collection of funds for UNICEF by children at Hallween through "Trick or Treat."

6. That the Conference secretary share the training and information which she received at the Regional Training Conference held at Nashville, March 13, 1962 with the district secretaries, who will in turn channel the information to the local secretaries.

REPORT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Mrs. T. S. Newbold

The Department of Christian Social Relations is vitally concerned with many factors that confront us as Christians in the world today. The resumption of nuclear testing by leading nations; the lack of specific progress toward disarmament; the increasing heavy role of the United Nations in world affairs; local, national and worldwide racial tensions; new freedoms for many peoples, all of these things and many more call Christians to new understanding and responsibilities in these changing times.

The church has declared its belief in the United Nations as the best hope for maintaining a peaceful world. The United Nations is in financial difficulty due to the expense of keeping a peace force in the Congo and in the Israeli-Arab area. To finance this and future peace-keeping activities, the United Nations is issuing bonds. President Kennedy has asked Congress to authorize the purchase of $100 million of UN Bonds. This represents a fantastically minimal expenditure in behalf of the world peace when compared with the enormous amount loaned to other nations for military purposes. We have given support to UN Bond Issue through letters to Congressmen, the President, and at district and subdistrict meetings. To help create a climate favorable to the UN we continue to promote the use of "UN We Believe Stamps," and will raise our voices in its behalf through activities in the church and community.

Local societies gave new emphasis to the study of the Charter of Racial Policies and many accepted their responsibility to practice brotherly love and to work for equal rights and opportunities for all people. The ratifying of the Charter by the delegated body at the Annual Conference is a source of strength and encouragement to the secretaries of Christian Social Relations. We will continue to cooperate with United Church Women in "Assignment Race."

We are working actively with the local Commission and the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns in the Race for Peace. The fall workshops and convocation will bring renewed interest in world affairs as well as train leaders for community activities in the area of peace education.

In the field of legislation, the Annual Conference approved the tentative program of the State Legislative Council for 1962-1963. Brochures will be sent for study to all local societies in the early fall. Our voice has been heard on Capitol Hill through letters to those in authority as we expressed interest and concern for proposals for national legislation.

Outstanding activities reported by local societies include the following: The adoption of three foreign students by three families; the resettling of Cuban families to the N. C. community; converting a former County Home into a modern convalescent home for the aged; sponsoring a Family Education Week for Teen-agers; holding a workshop on Teen-age Drinking for both Negro and white high school students.

As winds of change blow across the world today, as we face momentous decisions abroad and grave issues here at home, let us not ask "where do I stand?" but rather "what stand would my Master have me take?" We are the Church of Jesus Christ under orders: under orders to see that truth and justice reign. "Not my will but Thine, O Lord, be done."

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

In the "Activities Leaflet 1961-62," we find the following statements: "The winds of change blow across the whole world, quickening an imperative desire for social and economic reform in Latin America, bringing new awakenings in Europe and the United States. The impact of these winds of change is felt in the towns of the United States where men struggle with a new urgency for human dignity or in the spreading segregated belts of this nation's largest cities. The response of the church to these winds of change can become the most significant factor of hope in this decade, if the churches face the challenges and needs in terms of our Christian responsibility in these troubled times." As we face the winds of change, it is recommended that:

1. The Secretaries of Christian Social Relations study diligently The Handbook on Christian Social Relations, the pages on Christian Social Relations in each issue of The Methodist Woman, Concern, and the publications as recommended by the Department of Christian Social Relations.
2. Conferences purchase copies of the revised filmstrip: "This Is Christian Social Relations" to be used by districts and local societies in seeking to interpret the program of Christian Social Relations as related to the total program of The Woman's Society of Christian Service and The Wesleyan Service Guild.
3. We seek to establish active committees on Christian Social Relations in every conference, district, and local society.
4. The Secretaries and Chairmen of Christian Social Relations endeavor to co-ordinate the program of the Societies and the Guilds with the Commission on Christian Social Concerns in the local churches.

11. Re-affirm our stand on disarmament and support the United States Agency for World Peace and Disarmament.
12. Methodist Women continue to assume their share of responsibility for good legislation, and study the legislation recommended by The Woman's Division of Christian Service.
13. We keep a file of material to be turned over to successor.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF LITERATURE AND PUBLICATIONS

Mrs. J. Frank Houser

An interesting fact noted at the Sixth Assembly of the Woman's Division in Atlantic City, New Jersey in May was that the two large areas on the Convention Hall floor designated for the selling of literature was always completely surrounded by interested, wide-awake people who were reading, browsing and buying. As you read in the Methodist Woman recently, "We are not selling literature and magazines, we are selling a Christian service." Take advantage of this service and keep our women informed.

We are still striving to attain the goal of every Woman's Society having a local Secretary of Literature and Publications. We had some wonderful slogans submitted by the women of the North Carolina Conference such as:

"The Methodist Woman-World Outlook—Partners for Progress"

"The Methodist Woman and World Outlook are Winners"

"A World Outlook should challenge every Methodist Woman"

"Knowledge is Power—study the Methodist Woman and World Outlook"

"Information widens Inspiration—Information is Education."

REPORT OF MISSIONARY EDUCATION AND SERVICE

Mrs. Harold A. Braswell

The supreme aim of missions, to make Jesus Christ known, remains unchanged year in and year out in every age. It is the rapidly and constantly changing world that demands a revision of approach in our efforts to interpret the faith of our Christian church. In today's world of more accelerated confusion we would not remain static.

Our study program this year was projected with precision as to foresight and timing. Our hearts and minds have been prepared for deeper understanding of our Christian commitment as we have studied the factors confronting the churches in this world of new dimensions and great horizons; we have had our perspective cleared as to the Christian mission, our mission, to our long neglected neighbors in the Latin American countries; our responsibility as Christians in the governmental and political world has been indelibly impressed upon us; in our study of "The Meaning of Suffering" we have gained a new insight as to the potential in eternal values with which to meet the factors confronting us physically, mentally, and in all areas of life.

Four hundred sixty-four women attended the School of Missions and Christian Service; 1,272 attended the District Educational Seminar; 2,053 studies were held with an enrollment of 27,545,

There was an increase in classes for Jurisdiction Recognition. Fayetteville District led—having had 37; Raleigh District was second with 33.

The Goldsboro District won the Lillie Moore Everette Study Jewel with 88.3% of its societies having three or more studies.

As we launch forth into another year may we let Christ express Himself in our lives through the program of Missionary Education and Service.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR MISSIONARY EDUCATION AND SERVICE

Realizing the importance of missionary education in increasing the desire to extend the Kingdom and to work with others for a Christian world, we recommend:

1. That in this special period of leadership development, careful study be given to the duties and opportunities of the Secretary of Missionary Education and Service.
2. That persons of commitment and aptitude for creating interest in missions-centered programs and studies be encouraged to assume leadership opportunities.
3. That efforts be continued to reach the goal of
 - a. one approved study per quarter, plus co-operation with the Commission on Missions in the church-wide study
 - b. at least one study to meet Jurisdiction standards
4. That the Secretary of Missionary Education keep accurate reports—
 - a. Record each study when completed
 - b. Keep accurate account of church-wide studies
5. That continued use be made of films, filmstrips, slides, and audio-visual aids which tie in with current study courses.
6. That local secretary maintain a complete file of materials and letters to be passed to her successor.
7. That a closer co-operation exist with other officers in program planning, action, and evaluation.
8. That continued emphasis be given to the opportunities for training in the District Seminar and in the School of Missions.
9. That the Secretary of Missionary Education use all avenues of contact available to acquaint the membership with the work and the workers of her conference—
 - a. Distribute letters from missionaries
 - b. Encourage members to write letters and cards to missionaries
 - c. Remember birthdays
 - d. Use Prayer Calendar
10. That missionary education and service be inseparately linked together as a means to an end.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF MISSIONARY PERSONNEL

Miss Sarah McCracken

A missionary from Africa voices the modern Macedonian call: "Give us your prayers, your people and your gifts and we will take whole countries for God." Unless there are people to carry its immortal tidings, to staff its institutions, to teach the children and youth, and to bear their Christian witness in home and society, the Church's mission in the world will be limited in fulfillment. To challenge Christian youth and professionally qualified mature single women with the urgent need to "Go—Tell" is the task assigned to Missionary Personnel.

Minimum needs require twice the number of missionaries and deaconesses secured last quadrennium. The job of recruitment lies clearly at hand. It is not something we can put off until some more convenient day. Our mission is TODAY.

Have we forgotten the story given to us by Dr. and Mrs. Harold N. Brewster in the churchwide study book, "The Church and Medical Missions," of an old lady who came to the missionary doctor for help? "I'm sorry," said the doctor, "you have come too late." The little old lady looked up at him with a long look and said, "No, doctor, I have been here all the time. It is you who have come too late."

Twenty-five years before World War II Dr. John R. Mott walked to and fro across our country saying, "If we do not send hundreds of missionaries to Japan now, we will be sending hundreds of thousands of our soldiers in years to come." What happened? The people were not praying for missions, too few missionaries were sent, and we had Pearl Harbor. Is it true that the Christian people of the United States would rather clothe their sons and daughters in the uniform of our government and send them out on the battlefields to destroy and be destroyed than to clothe them in the full armor of God and send them out to help people have joy, peace, health and happiness?

We rejoice that at this time Sudie Hunt Doughton, Asbury, Durham, is serving in Chile, and Ann Page Brooks, Long Memorial, Roxboro, is in Japan. But the call is urgent for more personnel. And to hear the call of God one must be within listening distance. You and I have a responsibility and a challenge to create that atmosphere where our youth and adults will be within listening distance. Yes, our Christian witness around the world will stand or fall on our Christian witness here at home. As Christ ministers through us He enlarges the boundaries of His kingdom.

This past year we have given three scholarships to North Carolina Conference girls attending Pfeiffer College: Sylvia Boyte, Fayetteville District; Sandra Williford, Rocky Mount District; and Wanda Ballard, New Bern District. Nineteen hundred sixty-two and sixty-three will initiate our new scholarship program with three $500.00 scholarships being given to Methodist girls in our Conference planning to attend Louisburg College, Louisburg; Methodist College, Fayetteville; or North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount.

In October 1961 two students from Greensboro College, Sandra Wade from the New Bern District, and Betty Edmondson from the Rocky Mount District, participated in the Christian Vocations Weekend at Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee.

One who is now an earnest and useful evangelist first came to the mission in Belgian Congo as a primitive savage from a village eighty miles away. He had been watching the children in a sewing class and later in the day went to a prayer service to give utterance to his first public prayer: "Lord Jesus, you be the needle and I will be the thread and follow wherever you lead me."

"O mighty God, set us aflame
To show the glory of Thy Name."

RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING MISSIONARY PERSONNEL

It is the responsibility of the Secretary of Missionary Personnel to try to work out better ways to channel information and to create a climate in local societies and churches to challenge young people in choosing a Christian Vocation and to make recruitment a concern of the local church. Since we do not have a local Secretary of Missionary Personnel the Secretaries of Youth and Student Work are the key women in the local church.

It is recommended that:

1. A closer co-operation exist between Secretaries of Youth and Student Work with the district and conference secretaries of Missionary Personnel.
2. New emphasis be placed on reaching the professionally-trained woman.
3. Encouragement be given to each local church to have an active Committee on Christian Vocations.
4. Each local church, through its Committee on Christian Vocations, study its record to see the number who have gone out in a church-related vocation since 1940.
5. Itineration of enthusiastic missionary speakers be made in the local church, sub-district, district and conference youth meetings.
6. Summer Service opportunities be emphasized as one of the best ways to interest youth in the mission of the church.
7. An up-to-date file be kept of prospective candidates for missionary service.
8. Attendance of student delegates to the Jurisdiction Christian Vocations Conference at Scarritt College be promoted, with a close follow-up of those who attend.
9. The use of Missionary Personnel literature in each local society be promoted, with special emphasis on the Methodist Service Projects booklet for 1962.
10. Each District Secretary of Missionary Personnel serve on the District Scholarship Committee.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF PROMOTION

Mrs. C. H. Boyd

FACTORS THAT CONFRONT US IN PROMOTION

This report is dedicated to the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the North Carolina Conference for it is by their efforts that our progress is made possible. We are mindful too, of the nine district Secretaries of Promotion who labor so faithfully in organization and cultivation, and who so promptly compile and send their reports at the time they are due.

It is YOU the GOOD MEMBERS of the WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE who help to make the worldwide work of our organization possible.

A Good Member PRAYS, SERVES, PAYS.

Organization: Our goal is a Woman's Society Wesleyan Service Guild, district or charge member in every church in our Conference. We have 764 societies and stand third place in organization in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. However, we still have 28 unorganized churches.

Six new societies have been organized this year. Hickory Mount in Burlington District, Parkwood in Durham District, White Plains in Raleigh District, Monk's Memorial in Rocky Mount District and Pine Valley in Wilmington District. Lee's Chapel in the New Bern District has been reactivated. Holly Grove in the Elizabeth City District has become a circuit society.

Membership: Last fall the Woman's Division of Christian Service authorized a study of the woman constituency in every conference in the division. A sheet, "Take A Look," was sent to every society in the North Carolina Conference, and for the most part these sheets were returned indicating that the majority of societies participated. This study of the status of Methodist women in our conference reveals the startling fact that 50% of the women on our church rolls are not members of the Woman's Society or Wesleyan Service Guild. We cannot do the work set for us with incomplete ranks. Our aim is to enlist every Methodist woman. This spring each society was asked to participate in a Membership Campaign, OPEN THE DOOR—COME. C-CRUSADE FOR O-OTHER M-MEMBERS E-EAGERLY. As a result we made a sizeable gain in membership and for this we are grateful. We need active membership committees, yet the responsibility for securing members is not that of the Membership Committee alone. It is your responsibility and my responsibility. We must be WINSOME—WIN SOME for service.

Reports: Reports give us an insight into our work and serve as a measuring rod by which we may measure our weaknesses and our progress. Reports bind us together, and in this unity we have strength.

The Burlington, Durham and Goldsboro Districts were 100% reporting to the district secretary of promotion the first and second report period.

With a feeling of deep gratitude to you, my co-workers, I have worked with this last report as your Conference Secretary of Promotion. For the privilege of serving you, for the inspiration you have given, for the crossing of pathways I am grateful. My love, my interest, my prayers are with you.

"God to love and serve with all our power—with all our heart, soul, mind and strength; and as ourselves to love our neighbors—this is religion. Only this can bear the test, our test to make men and nations true, just and upright in all their dealings and to bring all law as well as all conduct in subjection to the law of God."

May the Master we strive to serve be very near to us as we seek to fulfill His Mission Today.

ing in the local society, training of district officers in the conference, and the attendance at conference and jurisdiction Schools of Missions by those eligible to attend.

11. That we assist in the promotion of "In Remembrance Gifts," "My World Bank," "Special Memberships," and other plans as they are given us by the Division in the area of financial promotion.
12. That the use of furloughed and retired missionaries in local churches and in other community gatherings, as well as subdistrict, district, and conference meetings be encouraged.
13. That we avail ourselves of every opportunity for itineration of Woman's Division Field Workers.
14. That we present with sincere dedication the purpose and work of the Woman's Society and of the Wesleyan Service Guild as the exciting venture that it is.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF SPIRITUAL LIFE

Mrs. J. E. Sponenberg

The factors that confront us in every line of work look big in 1962. As to the spiritual life, we are assured that: God is still greater than atomic and more encompassing than orbital; that Jesus Christ is Lord; and no natural or man-created factor can defeat these.

Only those persons who by circumstances or by choice have not embraced this Power and Lordship are defeated.

It is our task then to change for the one as many circumstances as possible; for the other surround with such a reality of a living God that choice is easier.

Our local secretaries and district secretaries have been diligent in working as the handbook outlines toward these goals. They promoted wide cooperation in the "Knock on Every Door" crusade.

On the conference level we are proud that every meeting of the total program is planned on a high standard of spiritual permeation.

This year we recognize the new concept in program material from the Division—that Spiritual Life cultivation is not just a song, scripture and prayer to preface the real program—but rather it is an atmosphere and influence merged into the program on a given topic.

We are happy to report our "New Treat" for Retreat this year. We will go to beautiful Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, on June 7-8. Mrs. Fred Phisterer, Louisville Conference Secretary of Spiritual Life, will come to lead us. We'll have the whole campus to ourselves.

We challenge every Methodist woman to remember that man in all ages has risen to his highest fulfillment when he has knelt in a profound awareness of the presence of God.

Could we truthfully say that of all factors confronting us today there is none so great as "when a God-conscious person confronts a person who needs God."

This is our work!

Will we fail, or are we able?

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SPIRITUAL LIFE

The church-wide quadrennial theme is "Jesus Christ Is Lord." If we really believe that Jesus Christ is Lord, our belief will express itself in action, for we can not separate the inner commitment from the outward expression. We must put into action the inner possession of Christ. We must keep before us the goal of helping all to recognize Christ as Lord and Savior. Through the channels of our Spiritual Life work, we can help to make the total church a redemptive fellowship.

To this end these recommendations are made to all Secretaries of Spiritual Life:

1. That we encourage every woman in the church to keep a daily quiet time that we may all grow in the practice of the Presence of God (see p. 34 of Guide).
2. That we promote Bible study at a greater depth.
3. That we constantly seek to make available the finest devotional materials.
4. That we co-operate with the Evangelistic program of our church, recognizing this as the heart of our church, seeing all people as part of the redemptive fellowship.
5. That we study our Spiritual Life handbook thoroughly and seek to permeate the total work of our Woman's Society with the Spiritual Life emphasis.
6. That we continually promote and assist in Prayer groups, Days Apart and Retreats, recognizing the great need for fellowship at deeper levels.
7. That we use the Prayer Calendar as a link with the world.
8. That we continue to feel our great responsibility for The Week of Prayer and Self-Denial.
9. That we make every effort to see that every Woman's Society elect a secretary of Spiritual Life, that this work of prime importance may penetrate into the whole church.
10. That we have as our aim to MAGNIFY Christ in every area of our Spiritual Life Work.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF STUDENT WORK

Mrs. W. Taylor Long

Recently, my attention was caught by a large, attractive sign board along the highway. On it were these words, and only these words: "America's Future is in School Today." How true this is! America's future business world, her government, her professional life, her scientific world, her social life, her cultural attainments, her churches, her homes—ALL of her future is in school today.

For the past five months it has been the happy experience of your Secretary of Student Work to observe student activities at close range, for I have been living in our lovely Methodist Student Center at East Carolina College. As I associate with the students from day to day, I have come to realize that the same factors confronting us in this quadrennium also confront our students. We must seek to teach our children, youth, and students to face these factors.

The first factor is rapid social changes. Our young people are deeply concerned about the race issue, the alcohol problem, the changed attitude toward sex, the early marriages of many of their fellow-students. They are anxious because the church seems rather unconcerned about these rapid social changes. They seem to think we do not realize these changes are taking place.

The second factor is new patterns of family life. Many of our students come from broken homes. Some come from homes where the father and the mother have to work to meet the needs of their families. These conditions affect the training the young people get in their homes. Many students have cars on the campus, sometimes causing our colleges to be called "suitcase colleges."

The third factor is population explosion. This applies to our colleges and universities, as well as to our nations. Times are changing on the campus. Our educational institutions are bursting at the seams. College requirements are stiffer and students are having to give more time to their studies. Here and there we find serious-minded young people reading and discussing serious subjects: literature, drama, the fine arts.

The fourth factor is international tensions. Our students read newspapers, and such magazines as Life, the Saturday Evening Post, Time, Look, U. S. News and Report. They are intensely interested in world happenings. They discuss the Peace Corps. Many of them take military training while in college, for they can expect to spend several years of their lives in camp. Perhaps the fact that they were born in a hot war and have always lived during a cold war causes them to take themselves seriously.

The fifth factor is changing trends in missions. Student Christian Movements are halfway through an emphasis, "The Life and Mission of the Church." They are studying their heritage, theology, and their place in the world, as they seek to understand God's plan in today's world. Our Conference is helping with this. We sent Miss Sandra Wade of New Bern and Greensboro College to the Scarritt House Party in January. One of our students, Ronald Watson, of Goldsboro and East Carolina College attended the Christian Citizenship Seminar in New York and Washington in February. We sent Miss Lynda Pearson of Fayetteville and Greensboro College, and Miss Dona Stowe of Washington, N. C., to the Assembly in Atlantic City, N. J., in May. All of these meetings enlarge their thinking about the changing trends in missions.

Students of today have their problems. The university offers every secular idea and ideal until a student becomes confused. His mental outlook has expanded until he is bewildered by the many changes in scientific discoveries and world-shaking events. He is impatient with what he considers our slowness in accepting changes.

What can we do to help meet the needs of our young people, you ask. We can cooperate with our workers with children and youth to lay a firm foundation of Christian faith during the years they are growing up. We can encourage them to go to college. We can send the blue information cards to the workers on campus as soon as we learn what college our young people will attend. We can inform our prospective students of the Methodist Student Movement on their campus. We can give them copies of an orientation issue of Motive. We can send them church bulletins and devotional literature. We can provide materials on missionary opportunities. We can encourage them to attend MSM conferences, summer camps and retreats, model United Nations Assemblies, and all the activities of their Methodist Student Movement. We can show them, with letters, cards, and little personal attentions, that we love and care about them.

Besides America's future that is in school today, there are more than 60,000 students from other countries in American colleges and universities. These are outstanding young people in their own countries who have been carefully chosen to study in our land. They are different from our students in many ways, but they are probably the future leaders in their own countries. Are we trying to acquaint them with the Christian way of life? We have a marvelous opportunity to work with them. Have YOU had a foreign student in YOUR home?

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR STUDENT WORK

In our endeavor to extend the ministry of The Methodist Church to her students enrolled in colleges and universities we must exert every effort to encourage the students to be informed members of the Christian community. Likewise we must inform the church of the students' experiences on the campus. In order to more nearly fulfill our mission as secretaries of student work it is recommended that:

1. All Secretaries of Student Work re-examine the purpose of the Woman's Society in electing a Secretary of Student Work. The purpose may be found in the ten responsibilities given in the leaflet published in October 1960 by the Woman's Division entitled, The Secretary of Student Work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.
2. All District Secretaries of Student Work choose from among the local secretaries in her district a secretary residing near a campus to act as Campus Secretary of Student Work. The method of making the choice is further explained in the leaflet mentioned above. The duties of the campus secretary may also be found in this leaflet.
3. All Conference Secretaries of Student Work promote plans of the Woman's Division and instruct district secretaries regarding the use and promotion of materials pertaining to student work as set forth by the Methodist Church and the Methodist Student Movement.
4. All secretaries of Student Work have knowledge of Methodist student activities on the campus; that they make an effort to become personally acquainted with those who administer and direct the Methodist work on the campus; that they make an effort to understand student thinking and activities; and that they interpret the M. S. M. to the local church and the Woman's Society.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF SUPPLY WORK

Mrs. L. S. Thompson

Supply Work has a thrilling story to tell. This channel of giving has been created to dramatize, make real and personal the needs of people and to provide Methodist women with the joyful opportunity of extra sharing. Last year the Woman's Division received over a million dollars in cash through Supply Work. This money, given over and above the pledge, not only provided necessities but many extras—extras that enabled our workers to do more effective jobs. Supply Work and the Treasurer thus are two supporting lines of work of the Woman's Division.

Projects to receive Supply Cash are assigned in rotation so that Methodist women may become acquainted with the many areas of their work. The local secretary of Supply Work by presenting the Supply Askings in an inspiring and informative manner is promoting in a significant way the total program of the Woman's Division.

In our Conference this year we shall meet the Askings assigned by the Jurisdiction and expect our giving to reach $20,000—a slight increase over last year. Likewise we are gratified by the increased percentage of societies participating in Supply Work.

In the home field our Supply Cash has provided car expenses, literature, films for our Pembroke area work; musical instruments, draperies and pillows for Bennett College; furniture, washer and dryer for Boylan-Haven Mather Academy; shoes and dresses for children of Ethel Harpst Home; equipment and instruments for Brewster Hospital.

In the foreign field the Girls' High School and Wesley Grove project in Taiwan have received two pianos, library and kindergarten supplies, furniture and literature. To Japan, Africa and Pakistan over $2,000 in Supply Cash has been sent to meet their most urgent needs—needs not covered by appropriations.

This extra sharing—an expression of love and concern made possible by Supply Work—unites the hearts of people around the world—the giver and the receiver—in commitment to our Lord. In so doing Supply Work has its share in meeting The Factors That Confront Us.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SUPPLY WORK

This is a strange thing,
 This is a paradox . . .
 That going a little farther rests the soul,
 That walking the second mile refreshes life.
 It is the truly Christian way of life.

H. J. Boss

Since Supply Work is the "going a little farther" and is the link between the work of the Woman's Division at home and abroad, and the membership of the Woman's Societies and Guilds, we recommend that:

1. A secretary of Supply Work be elected in each local society who will attend training days and send in accurate reports on time, using the handbook as a guide for her work.
2. Local, district, and conference secretaries educate societies to a greater appreciation of the work of the Woman's Division and the need for Supply Work.
3. The needs on the Asking List be met first. Until this is done in the local society or guild, the needs have not been met. Only then should contributions be made to other institutions.
4. The conference secretary keep an accurate record of all gifts made to projects on the Asking List to make sure these requests are being met. The records of cash gifts are secured from the conference treasurer.

5. All cash for Supply Work go through local treasurer, to district treasurer, to the conference treasurer (regular channels).
6. All available information which will create interest and participation in this work of the Woman's Division be channeled to the local societies.
7. Each local secretary of Supply Work be responsible for at least one program during the year.

REPORT OF THE WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

Miss Juanita Stott

In order to meet the many opportunities provided employed women through the Wesleyan Service Guild, our main goal for this past year has been to promote a greater program expansion. Feeling that if all Guild members understood more fully how the work was administered on the conference and district levels, the results would have to be more outreaching. We are so glad that much has been accomplished in that direction.

We now have seventy-nine Guild units, four of which are new this year, with 2,112 members. The Long-Range Planning Committee set up standing rules for the Conference Guild this year and on recommendation of this committee the Conference Guild Committee voted to organize the districts more fully by adding district chairmen of Spiritual Life, Christian Social Relations and Missionary Education and Service.

Our eighteenth Annual Meeting was held in First Methodist Church in Rocky Mount on April 7-8, with an attendance of 306. Dr. Georgia Harkness, noted teacher, author and lecturer, was the main speaker and brought great inspiration to all. The reports from all lines of work showed a marked increase in service and giving. The combined pledges of the nine district Guilds were $14,600 which were made in an impressive candlelight service. Honorary memberships were given to the following: Mrs. R. L. Pugh, New Bern; Miss Elizabeth Young, Smithfield; Mrs. Ernest Harding, Washington, and Mrs. W. T. Cline of Raleigh.

It was a pleasure to have Barbara Jean Mavnor, rural worker in the Pembroke area, and her husband Carl, at the Annual Meeting. Barbara Jean told of her many activities and gave a clear picture of the many worthwhile things she does there. The Conference Wesleyan Service Guild will again take Barbara Jean as a special project for this coming year.

It is with a great deal of pride and humility that this report is made for all that has been accomplished this past year has been due to the splendid cooperation and sincerity of our members. I regret that due to business reasons, I will not be able to continue in this office. It has been a most rewarding privilege and honor to work with all of our women and is a rich experience I shall always cherish. As we go forward and try to solve the many factors that confront us, may we ever remember the challenge which is ours, and may He who gave us this opportunity for service guide our every effort.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

In order to more fully realize the purpose of the Wesleyan Service Guild as it tries to meet the needs of employed women in our conference, it is recommended that:

1. Each Guild member seek to deepen her own spiritual life through every source available to her and seek to bring other employed women into an enriching fellowship in the Guild by personal invitation and visitation.
2. Each Guild member shall seek to become better informed about the changing world conditions that confront us through participation in approved study classes and reading the Methodist Woman and World Outlook each month.

3. Each Guild unit shall incorporate into its program the recommendations adopted by the Jurisdiction Committee on Christian Social Relations.
4. We try to implement the Conference's adoption of the Charter of Racial Policies through some positive action, program, or project on conference and/or local level.
5. Each district organize with district chairmen of Spiritual Life, Missionary Education and Service, and Christian Social Relations and that as many as possible of these attend the Conference School of Missions at Duke University August 6-10, 1962.
6. Every district have an officers' training session for local officers early in the year.
7. Each Guild unit shall seek to present a true picture of the work being done by sending in accurate, complete reports on time.
8. Each Guild unit shall strive to meet all the requirements or points on the check sheet to be used for the year.
9. As many members of each Guild unit as possible attend
 - a. The Assembly Guild Weekend at Atlantic City May 18-20
 - b. The Jurisdiction Guild Weekend at Lake Junaluska July 6-8
 - c. The Conference Guild Weekend of Study at Duke University August 11-12

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF YOUTH WORK

Miss Ethelynde Ballance

"I helped our youth with a Latin American Fiesta" . . . "We increased our giving to MY Fund" . . . "We are preparing for the unit on Churches for New Times."

These are statements from local Secretaries of Youth Work which are evidence of much being done in the area of "Christian Outreach."

"What do you mean by Friendship Press materials?" . . . "I don't know how much our group gives to MY Fund."

These statements evidence the failure to understand that the Secretary of Youth Work should be one:

Who communicates with youth—

Who is available as a resource person—

Who serves as a channel through which the resources and support of the Woman's Society of Christian Service enrich the total program of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Interpretation of the relationship of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and the Woman's Society continuously confronts us. Understanding is growing slowly, and we are already looking forward to training opportunities for local Secretaries of Youth Work during our School of Missions to be held in August.

I want to express special appreciation to nine loyal District Secretaries of Youth Work for their help in selecting our youth delegate to the Assembly. Miss Donna Stowe of Washington, North Carolina, will go with the understanding that she will be available to share her experience with both youth groups and Woman's Societies as she is called upon.

The titles of the two Friendship Press books for youth this year are significant: "Days of Decision," and "The Future Won't Wait." The Youth Division embraces the ten short years from twelve to twenty-two when youth are confronted with most of life's greatest decisions. I recently read an article which mentioned some of the characteristics of our culture. It is a mass culture. Youth is part of a crowd. Yet God continues to call men by name—as individuals. In this crowded world, youth needs the atmosphere where he can hear God's call. We are a part of the vocational guidance program of our church.

Ours is a prosperous culture where youth spend billions of dollars annually. Youth need to develop a sense of Christian stewardship. This is basic if we are to challenge youth to greater giving to the Methodist Youth Fund.

International implications remind us that we cannot live in isolation. "Missionary Education" helps youth to understand the basic truths that "the gospel is universal," and "God loves all persons of all nations."

Truly we are confronted with grave responsibilities as we work with youth in these days when they are confronted with so many factors, so many decisions.

My prayer is that more and more we shall understand that we are a part of a team of adults whom God calls to guide in their "days of decision" when "the future won't wait."

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUTH WORK

The Methodist Church has a unified program for the Christian Education of Youth. Missionary education is a vital and integral part of Christian education. In the unified plan for missionary education, the General Board of Education and the Board of Missions, of which the Woman's Division is a part, work together. This is true on every level in the church. The secretary of Youth Work is the person who, working with both groups, seeks to have an effective program of missionary education for youth, therefore, it is recommended that:

1. The Committee on Nominations carefully study the new Guide of the W.S.C.S. (pages 27-29) before choosing a Secretary of Youth Work in order to be able to make a suitable choice.
2. The secretary of Youth Work study the materials available in order to be an effective worker with youth. She should study "My Job As Secretary of Youth Work" (free for postage); the new Guide of the Woman's Society of Christian Service (35¢); the new Handbook for Senior Highs ($1.00); the new Guidebook for Youth Work in the Church (80¢); Planbook (free); and The Methodist Woman. For a better understanding of youth, she should read Know Your Teenager (Methodist Edition) by Evelyn Millis Duvall (20¢).
2. The secretary of Youth Work become a better resource person by:
 - a. Promoting the M.Y. Fund and securing the following materials: "Share"—Methodist Youth Fund Bulletin (free); M.Y. Fund Packet; "Youth Fund in Action" (large world map with stickers to locate Methodist Youth Fund projects) $1.00; and M.Y. Fund Picture packets, $1.50 each.
 - b. Helping to plan the Missionary Units and special "mission studies" for youth.
 - c. Fostering better understanding through the study of "Peace and World Order," using the magazine "Concern," 100 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington 2, D. C., as a resource.
 - d. Encouraging aid for Overseas Relief through gifts to "Clothes for Teens" and use of Overseas Relief Packet.
 - e. Aiding further the institutions of the Woman's Division through simple supply gifts. See "Youth Supply List" (free from Box 871, Nashville 2, Tennessee).

- f. Engaging with the Youth in the United Christian Youth Movement.
- g. Counseling World Friendship Groups—unorganized study groups of Seniors and Older Youth who are active members of the MYF and who give to the work of the Woman's Division through their regular M.Y. Fund pledge.
- h. Introducing the Lenten Reading project books to youth in order to undergird and enrich their lives: I Believe; I Follow; I Belong; I Serve; The Burning Thirst, Choose Life (These books available from Cokesbury).
4. All secretaries of Youth Work make a special effort to report completely and on time. (Refer to February 1961 "Methodist Woman" for a reporting guide for youth work.)
5. Every secretary of Youth Work attend the School of Missions this year. The themes will be "The Christian Mission on Rim of Southeast Asia," and "The Church's Mission and Persons of Special Need." The secretary of Youth Work is in the pattern of attendance this year, and there will be a clinic for her.
6. Each secretary of Youth Work become concerned with the need for Missionary Personnel and be sensitive to the youth who may become interested in church-related work, and if elected to do so, to serve faithfully on the Committee on Christian Vocations. At any rate, she should consider herself a committee of one to promote recruitment. She should have copies of the 1962 Methodist Service Projects, available from Committee on Christian Vocations, Box 871, Nashville 2, Tennessee. (15¢ each or 10 for $1.00).

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Miss Mary Gardner

Speaking before a group in Nashville, Tenn., sometime ago, Dr. Ralph Stoody, one of this country's more outstanding authorities on public relations, gave as a definition of public relations: "doing those things which will contribute to the appreciation of the organization, so that what we are doing will gain the confidence of the people. That is the real test of public relations."

If that be true—and we dare not deny it—each member of every Woman's Society of Christian Service in the North Carolina Conference is faced with the tremendous and challenging task of doing her utmost to continually practice GOOD public relations.

Publicity will not make up for public relations. Public relations is actual relationship with the public and involves far more than saying—it involves doing. In the Woman's Society of Christian Service, as in every organization, public relations is related to every line of work.

The highlight of the 1961-62 conference year for your conference chairman of public relations has been the enriching experience of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Seminar on Public Relations held in Nashville, Tenn., February 19-20. Since a full report of the event is not feasible here, I shall simply say that with such personalities as Dr. Ralph Stoody, Executive Director of Public Relations and Methodist Information of The Methodist Church; Mrs. E. L. Glossbrenner, president of the Southeastern Jurisdiction WSCS; Mrs. George Shiplett, the Jurisdiction Woman's Society's recording secretary and chairman of public relations; Mr. William Hearn, Director Nashville Office of Methodist Information; several experts in the fields of newspaper reporting, photography, radio and television, as leaders, and the sharing with them and other conference officers and chairmen of public relations was enough to cause this chairman to covet for every woman in the North Carolina Conference the same joys and privileges—and she did just that.

The Annual Conference School of Missions and Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild Weekend of Study; the Conference Executive Committee Meetings and the meetings of the conference Wesleyan Service Guild Standing Committee; the meetings of the Raleigh District Executive Committee and the district and subdistrict meetings of the Raleigh District were also among the highlights of the joys of service as your conference chairman of public relations.

Editing news for the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild each week for the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and writing news stories of annual meetings and other special events of the conference WSCS and WSG for the secular press; disseminating news on radio and television, as well as by every other media of public relations has continued to be a source of joy and satisfaction.

Someone has said that Americans are writing their own public relations and what they write will be up to them. Paraphrasing that statement we can say: Members of the WSCS and WSG are writing their own public relations and what they are writing is up to them. May God grant us wisdom, the spiritual insight, and the courage to write in every thought, word, and deed only those things which will glorify God and advance His kingdom.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PUBLIC RELATIONS

"Go tell . . ." (Matt. 26:10)—there is no finer definition of public relations in all history. Public relations seeks to inform and bring about harmony of understanding between any group and the public it serves and upon whose good will it depends. Methodist women are alerted to "Go tell . . ."

That our work will be more widely known and fully understood, we recommend:

1. That thoughtful consideration be given "Public Relations" as we make over-all plans.
2. That the chairmen of public relations use wisely every media of communication to tell effectively the story of The Methodist Church and the Woman's Society of Christian Service.
3. That the chairmen of public relations draft annually a calendar of activities listing her duties, responsibilities, important dates and meetings.
4. That seminars on Public Relations be held in the conference for district and local chairmen of public relations.
5. That "A Handbook of Church Public Relations" by Dr. Ralph Stoodly and the film "Making It Work" (available from Methodist Publishing House) be used as tools of instruction in this field.
6. That the chairmen of public relations be included in the deliberations of the executive committee.
7. That close co-operation with each officer and secretary of line of work is necessary.
8. That we channel promptly all information received from Methodist Information and connectional boards of The Methodist Church.
9. That each local and district chairman of public relations compile scrap books of historical interest concerning the work of the Women's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild; that the local chairmen send copies of clippings of local news of the two organizations to the district chairmen, and the district chairmen likewise send clippings to the conference chairman of public relations, thereby making use of the only means by which the extent of the promotion of public relations in the conference may be ascertained.
10. That as Methodist women we dedicate ourselves to accept Christ's Great Commission to "Go tell" the GOOD NEWS.

MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS

METHODIST STUDENT CENTER, EAST CAROLINA COLLEGE

Mrs. W. Taylor Long

Acting Temporary Director, Wesley Foundation

East Carolina College is experiencing a population explosion. There was a fall term enrollment of 5,263 students, with 1,244 Methodist preferences. The Wesley Foundation is housed in a beautiful Methodist Student Center, attractively furnished, and well kept. The programs are planned by the Wesley Foundation Student Council, working with the Director. The Board of Directors of the Wesley Foundation serves in an advisory capacity to the Wesley Foundation Student Council. The Foundation is administered jointly by the Inter-conference Commission on College and University Religious Work and the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The past year has been an extremely difficult one for the Wesley Foundation. The council president did not return to college in the fall of 1961. The vice-president resigned on doctor's orders. The Director, Miss Mamiej Chandler, was hospitalized through November and December. After the Christmas holidays, the Woman's Society of Christian Service sent the Conference Secretary of Student Work to assist the Director, who returned to the Center in January. In April, Miss Chandler fell and suffered a broken hip. She is still in the hospital, leaving the Secretary of Student Work as acting temporary director.

The general pattern for a week at the Methodist Student Center is: Coffee and doughnuts Sunday morning, followed by student-led worship and Sunday school class taught by the Director. The two Methodist churches in Greenville furnish transportation for students to attend morning services in town. Students are in charge of Sunday evening vespers. Dinner is prepared and served by students on Monday evenings, followed by Wesley Conversations which include a speaker. Holy Communion in the chapel each Wednesday evening at 9:30 is administered by the two Methodist ministers. The Wesley Foundation Student Council meets with the Director every Wednesday night, and the Executive Committee of the Wesley Foundation Board meets once a month. Friday and Saturday are fun nights at the Center.

Groups of students have often used the kitchen for suppers—students enjoy the informality of lounge and the privilege of a cup of coffee or cocoa in the kitchen. Many come over to find a quiet place to study. Television and ping pong are popular. Two large parties were given during the year—at Hallowe'en and Christmas. The Center is open every day from 9 a.m. until half an hour before the girls' dorms close at night.

The program has suffered somewhat with the many changes that have taken place this year. Our emphases have been on worship and outreach. We see the need to reach a greater number of students on campus and to bring them into the Christian community. Elections were held in the spring and the new Wesley Foundation Student Council is functioning.

During the first quarter, Freshman orientation was highlighted. Wesley Conversations centered around "The Relationship of God to Man" and "The Relationship of Man to God."

The emphasis in the second quarter was, "The Church—the New Covenant in Jesus Christ." Lectures and films were used. Bible study in Sunday school was on this theme.

Third quarter's emphasis was, "The Mission of the Church." Student Christian Movements are halfway through the emphasis, "The Life and Mission of the Church." They are studying their heritage, theology, and their place in the world, as they seek to understand God's plan in today's universe. Hideo Kusama, a Japanese student at the University of North Carolina, and Miss Barbara Leonard, a missionary to the Philippines, were speakers. The Director and her assistant gave reports on talks given at the Woman's Society Conference by missionaries from the Congo, Cuba, and from Chile.

A member of our Foundation, Ronald Watson, was selected state representative to attend the United Nations-Washington Christian Citizenship Seminar in February. The students and the Director attended the National Methodist Student Movement Conference at the University of Illinois, the last week in August, 1961. Three council members and the Director attended the State MSM Planning Retreat at Camp Chestnut Ridge in September. Twenty-two students, the Director, and her assistant attended the MSM State Conference at High Point in January. They took to this conference an excellent art exhibit and a splendid Wesley Foundation exhibit. One of our members, Ronald Watson, was elected state publicity chairman. Three students and the incoming conference secretary of Student Work, Mrs. Edgar B. Fisher, attended the spring State MSM Planning Retreat.

Miss Chandler is retiring after nineteen years as Director of the Foundation. The Methodist Student Center stands as a memorial to the years of splendid and untiring service she has given to the Wesley Foundation of East Carolina College.

REPORT OF THE PEMBROKE AREA

Miss Rebecca Modellmog

The Pembroke area rural work serves the Lumbee Indians. There are nine Methodist churches and a tenth is being developed. Our primary purpose is to enrich the total program of the church, but we try to help in others ways, too, to solve the many problems that exist—health, education, economy, etc.

This year, I directed three Vacation Church Schools, and three Christmas programs, counseled three Youth groups, attended three WSCS groups, had charge of a little church in South Carolina, taught the study course on Latin America five times, taught piano and violin, taught a literacy class, did much calling, distributed much of the used clothing which was sent and which was greatly appreciated, and attended many meetings outside of the area.

We do our work in the churches, and our cars are very important. This year I drove more than a thousand miles a month in my Ford Falcon which is provided and maintained by the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society. I enjoy serving in the kingdom-building work of the Lord. I do appreciate the help and the prayers of our women.

REPORT OF US2 WORKER, PEMBROKE AREA

Mrs. Carl Maynor

I work in three churches—Pleasant Grove, Ashpole Center, and Fairview.

During the past year we had Christmas programs and vacation church schools. We have an MYF in each of the three churches. In two churches, we now have two youth choirs. Pleasant Grove has ordered choir robes.

We have one WSCS and that is at Ashpole Center.

I teach study courses and piano lessons. A lot of my work is directed in promoting music. Music is very weak here.

Miss Rebecca and I work together with the subdistrict MYF which meets quarterly and the council meeting monthly. This program has developed very well, for instance, at our Youth Activities Week (from nine churches) we had around 200 enrolled.

The project has a ministerial group which meets monthly with a covered dish supper at which time problems are discussed and plans made. Too, we have a Group Ministry which meets every Saturday before the fifth Sunday. Here plans are made and problems are discussed.

This is a big field of service with many problems—economic, educational and social—and it's all very challenging.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Be it resolved that we have faced together some of the Factors That Confront Us in Our Mission Today in this twenty-second annual meeting of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service.

We, the representatives of local societies, give thanks to those who, through song, prayer, meditation and hospitality have made this meeting a memorable one.

The very setting of the conference in First Methodist Church, Wilson, was impressive: the cordial welcome of its pastor, church staff and the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was always present; the hostess society was joined by the women of Winstead and West Nash Societies in giving an afternoon tea; Wilson's own ecumenical life was evident in the co-operation of the women of the Christian and Episcopal Churches, and the City of Wilson in relinquishing parking regulations for delegates. For all of this we express our appreciation.

We thank Mrs. H. C. Turlington, our president, for her capable leadership, challenging us to personal and group rededication and increased effort in our mission today.

We thank Mrs. Sam A. Dunn, chairman, and her Committee on Program for lifting up the factors that confront us and extending our vision through the World Federation of Methodist Women.

To Mrs. L. C. Vereen, conference treasurer, we express appreciation for the promotion of special memberships, the World Bank Candle and to her and the district presidents and treasurers for the high moment of spiritual commitment in the Pledge Service.

To Mrs. H. W. Doub, recording secretary, a special thanks for her continuing service in office.

To our conference and Guild secretaries, who gave us a better understanding of the great scope of our work in a fast-changing world, we express our thanks.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate and the local press gave us generous space.

Undergirding this annual session was the Service of Spiritual Preparation led by Mrs. R. L. Jerome and Mrs. J. E. Sponenberg. Continuing in this same spirit was the Sacrament of Holy Communion, led by the host pastor, the Reverend R. Grady Dawson, assisted by Dr. W. C. Ball, Rocky Mount District superintendent, and others.

For the bounty and beauty of song which pervaded the entire program we thank Mr. Philip Cartwright and Mr. Charles Rakow, organist.

We will long remember in the words of our conference hymn:

The people hunger for Thee, Lord,
The isles are waiting for Thy word

so graphically pictured by our guest speakers: the Reverend Robert Neill, missionary to Cuba; the Reverend Edward F. Smith, missionary to Belgian Congo; the Reverend and Mrs. C. Clyde Tucker, missionaries to Chile; and Bishop Paul N. Garber who spoke on "The Methodist Church in Poland."

We submit these resolutions with this prayer:

O mighty God, set us aflame
To show the glory of Thy name.

Almost one-half of the officers of the Burlington District are serving for the first time this year, including the president. As we have worked together, I have seen very clearly our second quadrennial emphasis, "The Faith That Compels Us," in action.

Our 80 societies, with 4,066 members, including the Wesleyan Service Guilds, have been in close touch with each officer as she has worked faithfully to promote her line of work, as directed by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

A well-planned Educational Seminar at the Goldston Methodist Church gave us the needed inspiration for good circle programs and study sessions for the year. Reports show an increased attendance with more action on youth and children's extended sessions. The Conference Scholarship plans for the coming year have been publicized, and applications submitted to the Conference Scholarship Committee.

Last November, in an effort to acquaint more members with the work of the society, officers' training was conducted in each of the five subdistricts, with each officer and secretary taking part. "The mountain was brought to Mohammed" when our Secretary of Literature and Publications made available published materials. Special notice was given to the film library maintained by the district. If attendance was not 100%, interest was, and great pleasure came from seeing so many of our members enlightened about many things that go along with a circle and Woman's Society meeting. Much emphasis was placed on the importance of the choice of leaders by the Nominating Committee. Many local presidents have expressed thanks for the help the "check sheet" gives in planning good societies. The use of the World Bank is being continued.

At all times we have stressed the importance of the small society in our large organization, hoping to reach the local woman in every corner of our district.

Our pledge to Conference is $12,750.00, an increase of $250.00. Our supply askings have been met. An increase in the number of special memberships has been noted, with one society giving nine at one time.

With the conferencewide membership operation C O M E, we hope to gain new members.

We look forward to the Assembly with great enthusiasm. We have solicited the prayers of our members for its success.

MRS. J. E. DAVIS, President

MRS. LEROY PICKARD, Secretary of Promotion

From our reports, visits, and meetings during 1961-62 we have gleaned these "factors that confront" the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Durham District:

An increase in membership due to the organization of a new society.

Well-planned programs in the local society, the subdistrict meetings and district conference, where the women had the privilege of hearing Mrs. Clyde Tucker, the Rev. Edward F. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neil. Several of our conference officers have spoken at some of our subdistrict meetings.

Contributions that have exceeded our pledge to Missions. At the close of the year 1960-61 Durham District contributed to an endowment fund at the Methodist University of Alaska. This contribution is to aid boys from the Jesse Lee Home who wish to attend the university. This year the district has contributed to the salary of Ann Fage Brooks of Roxboro who is now serving in Japan. The societies have also exceeded their askings for Supply Work.

Increased interest in international concern has been expressed in the observance of UN Day, World Community Day, participation in UNICEF and UN We Believe Stamps.

The cultivation of children, youth, and students has been planned and carried out by the secretaries of these lines of work, assisted by the teachers in the church schools and daily vacation Bible schools.

The desire to grow spiritually and to be better informed concerning the needs of others is evidenced by the attendance at the Day Apart in June, the Fall Seminar and the Mission Study classes, and the number of women subscribing to the Methodist Woman and the World Outlook.

The Wesleyan Service Guild has had a good year. A new circle was formed at Duke Memorial Church and a new Guild organized at Effland.

There are still too many women who are not members of the Woman's Society or the Wesleyan Service Guild. This is a factor that does concern us and one who hope to do something about during 1962-63.

MISS LIZZIE GREY CHANDLER, President

MRS. J. C. WINGATE, Secretary of Promotion

The Elizabeth City District has continued during this second year of the quadrennium to show progress. Our fall seminars and subdistrict meetings were well attended and we are pleased with the interest displayed by the local women. A total of 722 women attended the nine fall subdistrict meetings. We were also represented by a good number of women at the Annual Meeting in Wilson and we are looking forward to being the hostess district in 1963 when the Annual Meeting will be in Elizabeth City. On April 10 the highlight of our spring activities was the district meeting at First Methodist Church in Elizabeth City with about 300 women in attendance. We were delighted to have Dr. Thor Hall of Duke University and Norway as speaker for this meeting. We certainly missed the members of the Outer Banks Subdistrict who were cut off from the mainland because of the Northeastern that swept our area on March 17. These women are always willing to take a ferry or two to be with us for our district meeting; however, even this was unavailable but through letters that came we know that they were with us in spirit. The Elizabeth City District was proud to have not only a delegate to the Assembly in Atlantic City, but we also paid the expenses of one visitor in order that we might have two people available to speak in the district about this great meeting. I must express my thanks to Mrs. Hunter Sharp, Jr., District Vice-President, and to Mrs. Richard Peede, District Secretary of Promotion, for carrying the ball in the Elizabeth City District during the past four months when I have been confined to my bed. Now we are looking forward to another year and I am looking forward to again being able to work with the wonderful women of the Elizabeth City District.

Mrs. JOSEPH R. BRYANT, President

Mrs. RICHARD PEEDE, Sec. of Promotion

In this the second year of the quadrennium, members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Fayetteville District were more and more conscious of the "factors that confront us" in our changing society; of the responsibilities and opportunities open for women through the church.

We continue to be 100% organized. Our desire is to have societies wherever possible in the areas where we now have district members. We keep ever before us the goal of "every Methodist woman a member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service or the Wesleyan Service Guild." Our membership increases each year.

At our district meeting in Fayetteville at Person Street, Mrs. Clyde Tucker, a missionary to Chile, gave us an insight of this work and the needs that exist. Our district superintendent, the Rev. M. C. Dunn, gave the meditation for our meeting. We are always appreciative of his interest and support, and also that of the ministers.

Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Jr., our incoming president, was our delegate to the Assembly, and our incoming Secretary of Promotion, Mrs. W. M. Clark, was sent with expenses paid. There were 10 others that attended from the Fayetteville District. We are looking forward to this report at our fall subdistrict meetings.

Our two Educational Seminars held last September were well attended. We have emphasized quality study courses during this year and as a result we have had more Jurisdiction study courses and the highest number in the conference.

During this year many women have made special study of the United Nations, and through the use of United Nations seals they have helped to form public opinion in support of UN.

Children, youth and student work has been promoted and results being seen within these areas. We need a functioning committee in Christian vocations in the local church because we are not filling the needs of missionary personnel.

There has been an increase in the use of free and "for sale" literature and we continue to try to get the Methodist Woman into the membership of the societies.

Our gifts to Supply oversubscribed the total askings. Fayetteville District was the only district that made a contribution for the burning of the Candle at Annual Conference, which was burned for ten minutes, a total giving of $222 for missions through the World Bank. We have had "In Remembrance Gifts" and Special Membership gifts this year. Roberdell Society gave 15 Baby Memberships at one meeting.

Members of the Woman's Society and the Wesleyan Service Guild co-operated in our churchwide "Knock on Every Door" campaign last fall, and they followed through with help in the "prayer vigil," and with the "visitation." As members of the Methodist Church first, our women always come to the front to help whenever needed in the total program of the church.

With the conditions that exist the world over, the women of the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild of Fayetteville District realize that "Our Mission Today" lies in "Our Purpose." With a "Faith that Compels Us," we know our work is daily, and is never done. With the "Factors that Confront Us," rapid social change, new patterns of family life, population explosions, international tensions, and changing trends in missions, our responsibility is great, and our task is big. We know that "Frontiers Call Us" and that we must seek new avenues of service until we have "A Program that Unites Us in Witness and Service."

In turning over the duties and responsibilities of our offices to our successors, we wish to express appreciation to ALL who have served with us—district officers, subdistrict leaders, local officers, members of the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild, and the conference officers who have directed us in the fields of service. It has been through your prayers, services, cooperation and gifts that the work of the Fayetteville District has been done. It has been a pleasure and a privilege to know and work with you and these years will always remain as years of greatest joys and fondest memories. Our love and prayers will go with you as you continue your work.

TODAY is our day for WITNESS and SERVICE! TODAY, God gives us the opportunity to help in His eternal purpose for His world. Thus TODAY is ours for rededication to JESUS CHRIST as LORD.

The year which now comes to its close was one in which we were confronted with many factor —factors that caused us to re-examine our sense of values and Christian faith.

Looking at the reports we see reflected the "joy of dreams fulfilled and the hurt of needs unmet" and though looking backwards, we plan forward.

The women of our district have taken advantage of every opportunity to learn more about the work. The Fall Education Seminar was well planned and well attended. We feel that there is more interest in missionary education—that more and more societies are preparing their own studies without outside help.

We see tangible evidence that films, filmstrips and slides are being integrated increasingly into programs and studies. Prayer groups have increased. The sale of literature has more than doubled the previous year. The local woman is aware that study and information as well as challenge are essential if she is to meet her responsibilities.

The progress (facts and figures) of our work may be found in the statistical report.

During the year we have had two executive committee meetings, one Fall Education Seminar, five Fall Subdistrict meetings with a depth Bible study, and one-hour clinics for each line of work at each meeting.

Mrs. Sarah McCracken, Conference Secretary of Missionary Personnel, was our inspirational speaker at the annual district meeting held at Keener Methodist Church, March 29, 1961. In her message she stated that "our greatest need is personnel. The search begins in our homes and the local church—has your church issued the challenge?" More than two hundred attended.

The Spring subdistrict meetings used the service of worship, "The Church in the World," in preparation for the Sixth Assembly. Conference and district officers lifted up the work through inspiring messages. Local presidents gave reports of the year's progress and took part in pledge services. The attendance was good at both fall and spring meetings.

A well-known theologian says that "to be a Christian we must proclaim the gospel, we must live the gospel, and we must demonstrate the gospel through service." This describes so well what the local Woman's Societies are doing. We express our appreciation for their untiring work, for the loyalty of the district and subdistrict leaders. For the inspiration of the conference officers and the cooperation of Rev. Mark Lawrence, district superintendent, and the local ministers.

As we enter into the year ahead let us seek as co-workers to do God's will and increase the outreach of our effectiveness and faith.

MRS. CECIL M. PATE, President

MRS. SHELTON B. BOYD, Sec. of Promotion

In the second year of the quadrennium the New Bern District has prayerfully faced the "Factors that Confront Us." Our subdistrict meetings were well attended and each of these meetings was evidence that the ladies worked thoughtfully and well to present a program to fill the needs of the local women.

The four approved studies were presented to the women at a well-planned though hurricane-threatened Fall Seminar under the leadership of Mrs. L. C. Swink, District Secretary of Spiritual Life. Mrs. Swink reports there have been more studies in our local societies this year than ever before.

The attendance at our district meeting April 4th at First Methodist Church, Morehead City, was the largest in a number of years. Rev. T. Marvin Vick, president of the N. C. Board of Missions, was speaker, bringing forcefully to our attention the many "Factors that Confront Us" in the world today.

In January Mrs. John F. Wooten became president of the New Bern District, filling the unexpired term of Mrs. Albert Venters.

In May, the president, Secretary of Promotion, and Secretary of Spiritual Life, Mrs. W. B. Rouse, attended our Sixth Assembly held in Atlantic City.

We sincerely believe this has been a superior year. The dedication to God has shown through in the wonderful cooperation our women have shown. It would be hard to find more faithful women than these who give daily of their time, prayers, service, devotion and gifts. With deep gratitude to Him we look forward to the continued spiritual growth of our district.

MRS. JOHN F. WOOTEN, President

MRS. J. H. IPOCK, Sec. of Promotion

Reviewing the activities of the Raleigh District during 1961-62 is an exciting and thrilling experience for this has been a busy and challenging year. For the love, understanding, encouragement and help so willingly given to her as she attempted to fill the unexpired term in this position, the president would like to say "thank you."

The work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service continues to grow as the love and concern for others deepens in the hearts of women. One new society was organized at White Plains Church in Cary. Another society has been reorganized at Pleasant Grove Church near Bailey. One new district member has been added. This makes a total of 91 societies in the district comprising four subdistricts with a total membership of 4,477 with a gain of 223 members for the year.

Among the strengths of the district is the enthusiasm and zeal of the district officers for the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Their interest and contributions to the affairs of the executive committee is unexcelled, as each assumes individual responsibility for district work. All the officers were in full attendance as they participated actively and purposefully in the two educational seminars, the district meeting, and the eight subdistrict meetings held during the year. Continuously the officers have attempted to evaluate the program with the purpose of discovering and strengthening the weaknesses and continuing the successful phases. This practice undoubtedly will result in a better and much stronger program of work in the future.

As a result of further evaluation of the total program this year, additional emphasis has been given to recruitment. The keynote address for the spring subdistrict meetings was geared to a study of the need for enlistment of young people into the field of religious work as a vocation. By continued emphasis, it is hoped that some tangible results may show in the number of enlisted young people who will accept the challenge of the Christian message.

Because of not only the increase in membership but, also, of the growing love and concern in the hearts of women for the mission program, a sizeable increase in the financial support for the work was noted. A grand total of $34,011.85 was given by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, including contributions of $5,883.97 from the Wesleyan Service Guild. More emphasis is being given to the need for greater spiritual development of the individual knowing that along with the deepening of one's spiritual well-being will come greater progress and more support for the total mission program.

The highlight of the year for eighteen members of this district was their privilege in attending the Sixth Assembly of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held in Atlantic City, N. J., May 15-18. The experience will be a lasting memory in the lives of those who attended.

With the close of the year comes regret that more was not accomplished, but at the same time thankfulness for all service given and the privilege of serving the Master through the program of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. A closing thought:

"The stairs of opportunity are sometimes hard to climb;
And that can be done by one step at a time;
But he who would go to the top ne'er sits down and despairs;
Instead of staring up those steps he just steps up the stairs."

With the passing of the second year of the 1960-64 quadrennium, let us review the first two emphases of "Our Mission Today," and evaluate our accomplishments. Have we grown in "The Faith that Compels Us?" How have we faced "The Factors that Confront Us?"

Under the able leadership of our conference, district and local officers, the Rocky Mount District has experienced a year of learning, and consequently a period of growth. An increased interest and participation in mission studies has been noted throughout the district. At the educational seminar held in Enfield in September, the four studies were taught by four women who were serving in this capacity for the first time. It is always gratifying to discover willing and qualified leadership. Our most outstanding learning experience was the Annual Meeting which was so ably entertained by the First Methodist Church in Wilson. Focusing our attention and study on "The Factors that Confront Us" in our world today were five missionaries who had served in Cuba, Chile, Congo and Poland. Their testimonies and their lives were proof of their compelling faith.

The ratification of the Charter of Racial Policies at the business session of the Annual Meeting was a step forward in facing "The Factors that Confront Us."

Both fall and spring Executive Committee Meetings were well attended, and interest and enthusiasm were evidenced by the reports as well as in the planning of the work in the district.

The annual district meeting was held in Bethel on March 29th with an attendance of around 200. Mrs. W. C. Smith of Portsmouth, Va., vividly presented "The Factors that Confront Us." A model program committee meeting written by the vice-president, Mrs. C. K. Wright, gave valuable information.

At our four subdistrict meetings the following excellent speakers brought much inspiration and information: Mrs. T. S. Newbold, Mrs. L. C. Vereen, Mrs. Taylor Long, Mrs. Sam Dunn, Rev. Clyde Tucker, missionary to Chile, and Mr. John Pearsall, assistant chaplain, Eastern N. C. Sanitorium in Wilson. These challenged our women for better services.

At the spring subdistrict meetings "A Model Finance Committee Meeting" prepared by Mrs. C. M. Mitchell, district treasurer, was used as a way of presenting the district work.

We are proud to announce one new society, Monk Memorial, in the Southern Central subdistrict.

Having completed the study, "The Faith that Compels Us," and "The Factors that Confront Us," we now look forward to "The Frontiers that Call Us" and "The Program that Unites Us in Witness and Service."

MRS. J. W. BENSON, Sec. of Promotion

The year which ended May 31, 1962, was a good one for the Wilmington District. The interest and enthusiasm began early when 32 members, which included most of the district officers, attended the School Missions at Duke University in August.

On September 14, 1961, an educational seminar was held at Trinity Church, Wilmington. Attendance was good with most of the societies of the district represented.

The spring district meeting was held at the lovely new Wesley Methodist Church at Riegelwood, N. C. This meeting was well attended. The delegates were thrilled by the message given by Rev. Edward F. Smith, who recently returned as a missionary from the Congo.

A subdistrict meeting was conducted in May in each of the subdistricts. The district president gave a report on the Sixth National Assembly, which she attended in Atlantic City, N. J., May 13-18, 1962.

During this year one new society was organized at Pine Valley Methodist Church, Wilmington. We organized two new Wesleyan Service Guilds, one at Trinity Church, Fairmont, and another at Wesley Memorial Church, Wilmington.

It would be impossible to mention each person who has helped during this year in the work of the district. However, appreciation is extended to each one, and especially to the district officers, the secretaries of each line of work, the subdistrict leaders, and to our beloved pastors and district superintendent, Rev. Clyde S. Boggs.

We begin a new year with confidence and hope, knowing that the activity of the societies in the district will accomplish more good for the kingdom of God, as we continue to look to Him for help and strength.

MRS. ALBERT E. GOLDFINCH, President

MRS. ROBERT M. TURNELL, Sec. of Promotion

Eighteenth Annual Meeting of the
NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, N. C.

April 7-8, 1962

After the organ prelude by Mrs. Thomas B. Suiter the eighteenth annual meeting was declared in session at 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 7, 1962, in the sanctuary of First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, N. C., by Miss Juanita Stott, Conference Secretary. The theme of the meeting was "Factors that Confront Us," and the theme hymn was "God of Grace and God of Glory." Mr. Henry G. Ruark, pastor, gave the invocation and extended a most cordial welcome to the Guild delegates. Welcomes were also given by Mrs. Randall Smith, president of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the host church, in behalf of the three Rocky Mount Guilds, and by Mrs. L. G. Hooks, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the host church. Mrs. D. C. Fussell presented the 1962 program to Mrs. Harriet Fralix, to whom it was dedicated in loving appreciation of her devoted service.

Miss Stott recognized several Woman's Society Conference officers who were guests at the meeting: Mrs. J. Frank Hauser, Secretary of Literature and Publications; Mrs. Harold Braswell, Secretary of Missionary Education and Service; Mrs. Sam A. Dunn, Vice President; Mrs. J. W. Benson, new Secretary of Promotion; and Mrs. H. W. Doub, Recording Secretary. She also presented Mrs. D. W. Whitley, overall chairman of the local planning committee, who made a few announcements about local arrangements.

Mrs. Robert M. Wingfield sang a lovely solo, "Today on the Highway I Met Him," after which reports woven about the topic, "Factors that Confronted Us in Our Areas of Work Last Year," were presented. Mrs. C. H. Boyd, Secretary of Promotion, stated that our greatest concern in the area of promotion is in organization and membership. Results of a study made by the Woman's Division revealed the startling fact that less than fifty per cent of Methodist women in the North Carolina Conference were members of either the Woman's Society or the Guild. Young women from eighteen to twenty-five in particular are not being reached. She stressed that active membership committees are needed for recruitment, not because we strive for increased numbers but because we must have more hands dedicated to serving and helping meet the needs of today. This is our mission, Mrs. Boyd stated, and we must work in our local Guild units to help accomplish this.

Mrs. L. C. Vereen, Treasurer, brought out that finances tell the story of our response to the opportunity of serving our Lord by the giving of our material possessions. This story also reflects the giving of our time and talents, since it is not until we give of ourselves that we give of our money. She was pleased to note that the pledge to missions showed a good increase this year but mentioned that the offering for the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial had not come in so well. She suggested that we examine ourselves and our Guild to be sure we are reaching our potential in service.

Miss Stott in her report stated that she felt our program would expand more if all Guild members understood how the work was administered on the conference and district levels, and she gave a brief explanation of this. She reported that we now have seventy-nine Guild units, four of which are new this year, with 2,022 members at the last report. The Long-Range Planning Committee this year set up standing rules for the Conference Guild, and on recommendation of this committee the Conference Guild Committee voted to organize the districts more fully by adding district chairmen of Spiritual Life, Christian Social Relations and Missionary Education and Service. Miss Stott announced that she had resigned effective June 1 and that Mrs. C. H. Boyd would fill out her term of office.

Miss Lillie Smith, chairman of Spiritual Life, reported an increase in almost every area of this work, particularly in the observance of the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial. Forty units reported having observed this last year and sixty-four this year. A Spiritual Life Retreat was planned for June 6 and 7 at North Carolina Wesleyan College and it was urged that all members attend this who possibly could. Miss Smith suggested that more emphasis be placed on prayer groups and stressed the importance of using the Prayer Calendar and Spiritual Life Packet in promoting the work in this field.

Mrs. J. M. Carraway, chairman of Christian Social Relations, stated that, as we face the factors that confront us with regard to our Christian responsibility in rapidly-changing social and world conditions, we find that morality and Christian leadership have not measured up to the progress in scientific knowledge. She stated that the basic problems of mankind are not solved by science or in the Pentagon, however, but in the Christian church. She reported that the Charter of Racial Policies had been ratified by two districts and nine local Guild units, it having been ratified by the Conference Guild at the annual meeting last year. In Raleigh She asked that this charter be studied again in each local unit with a view to ratification.

Miss Stott reported on Missionary Education and Service in the absence of Mrs. W. C. Gardner, chairman of this line of work. A quite successful Weekend of Study had been held at Duke last August and plans were being made for the one which is scheduled for this next August 11 and 12. In addition to the four study courses, leadership training will be given by Miss Jean Maxwell of the Woman's Division. It was hoped that the May reports would reflect more fully the activities the local Guild units have pursued this year. Miss Stott reminded us that Missionary Education and Service is a most important part of our Guild work and every member should be actively involved in it.

Mrs. D. C. Fussell, chairman of Supply Work, stated that this area presented needs and the Guild members generously answered by supplying the money to take care of these needs. Each year home projects in our own jurisdiction along with an equal number of foreign projects are lifted up for study and special help. She announced that any extra supply money this year would go to Brooks-Howell Home in Asheville.

The hymn, "God of Our Fathers," was sung and Mrs. Norman C. Wood then introduced our guest speaker, Dr. Georgia Harkness. Mrs. Wood stated she had received a great deal of information about the varied activities of our speaker as teacher, lecturer, preacher and author. She felt that we might not remember all these things but did feel that we would most certainly remember what Dr. Harkness had to say to us and presented her as a great Christian and friend, a co-worker in Christ.

Dr. Harkness' first message was on "Factors that Confront Us in Our World." She named six of the worst factors confronting us in the world today and then spoke of some of the great things God has done for us. In the first group she listed inner unrest and emptiness, fear of a third world war, communism with its denial of man's basic freedoms, racial inequities and tensions, the hunger throughout the world, and the homelessness of so many of the world's people. Not to forget these things but to look at the other side of the picture, Dr. Harkness assured us that we do have much in the natural order of things for which to thank God and mentioned four anchors which can hold us steady as we look forward in faith. These are faith in God, the power of love and reconciliation, the worth of every person in the sight of God and finally the promise that God will provide, if we seek first His kingdom. She closed by saying that in all these factors that confront us we should go forward in faith, knowing that God will lead the way.

After the singing of "O Jesus Master" there was a short break. The theme hymn, "God of Grace and God of Glory," was sung as the meeting reconvened. Mrs. H. C. Turlington, Conference President, then brought greetings from the Woman's Society of Christian Service and gave some of the highlights of their annual meeting in March. She reported that only ten Guild delegates had attended this meeting.

Miss Stott presented Barbara Jean Maynor, whose work the Conference Guild has been helping to support, and her husband, Carl Maynor. Barbara Jean spoke on "Facing Factors at Pembroke," telling of her work with the Lumbee Indians in Robeson County where she and Miss Rebecca Modellmog work with nine churches. She felt the work with youth was one of their most challenging factors and mentioned illiteracy as another factor which had to be faced and dealt with. One of the needs in this area is clothing for ages six to twenty.

At this time the voting delegates were counted in preparation for the business session. In response to inquiry by Miss Stott it was found that two members at this meeting, Mrs. Frances Parker McAdams and Mrs. J. B. Bullock, had attended seventeen of the eighteen annual meetings. Mrs. Harriet Fralix and Mrs. Monte Denson had attended sixteen, and Miss Sarah Godfrey and Miss Lillie Smith fifteen.

Miss Sarah Godfrey, chairman of the Committee on Nominations, presented three new officers who were not to be voted on: Mrs. C. H. Boyd, Conference Secretary; Mrs. Pat Nixon, Burlington District Secretary; and Mrs. Paul Nance, Elizabeth City District Secretary. She then gave the report of her committee, with the following nominations: chairman of Spiritual Life, Miss Lillie Smith; chairman of Missionary Education and Service, Mrs. Joseph Smith; chairman of Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Ernest Harding; chairman of Supply Work, Mrs. C. P. Satterwhite; chairman of Committee on Nominations, Miss Louise Clements; and Member-at-Large, Mrs. T. S. Newbold. There being no nominations from the floor, it was moved that the slate of officers presented by the committee be accepted and that they be elected. The motion was seconded and carried.

Miss Stott presented the recommendations for the Guild and asked for a motion that they be adopted. The motion was made, seconded and passed. An invitation for the 1963 Annual Meeting was extended by Mrs. Hathaway of the Wesleyan Service Guild of St. Paul Methodist Church in Goldsboro. It was moved, seconded and passed that this invitation be accepted. There being no further business, the afternoon session was closed with the Guild benediction.

The Saturday evening banquet was held in the fellowship hall of the church at 6:15, Mrs. Lena Gray presiding. Miss Sarah Godfrey gave the invocation. "Happy Birthday" was sung to the Wesleyan Service Guild for its 21st birthday, and Mrs. Gray then introduced a number of special guests, the new and old officers, and our speakers. Mrs. Joseph Smith gave a history of the Guild, her topic being "We Are Old Enough to Vote." A roll call by districts was conducted by Miss Stott. The Aberdeen Guild presented a clever skit, "All Aboard for Atlantic City," as a reminder for us to make plans to attend the Assembly Guild Weekend in Atlantic City in May.

The Saturday evening session, Mrs. Harriet Fralix presiding, opened with the singing of "O Son of Man" and a prayer by Mrs. Turlington. Dr. Harkness in her second message spoke on "Factors that Confront Us in Our Church," stating first that we must build our church on this rock, the statement of Peter that "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." In the local church building we see the cross, which is the center of our love and loyalty as Christians, and the communion table, where we find our souls renewed. These and others are factors that confront and lift us, calling us to worship God in Christ, to serve God through Christ and to carry the gospel of Christ. Dr. Harkness brought out that the church exists to be a worshipping and witnessing fellowship and that the laity like the clergy are called to be ministers in the world, this calling coming also to us who are women within the Methodist Church. She pointed out that we have work to do which perhaps no others can do as well and that it is not too big a calling if we remember that we do not have to rely on our own resources. She felt that what was done in this meeting and what would be done in other meetings would be instrumental to the deeper purpose for which our church exists and the deep purpose to which our Lord calls us.

Mrs. Fralix expressed appreciation on behalf of the Guild to Dr. Harkness for being with us and giving us this inspiring message. Mr. M. E. Grady sang "O Beautiful for Spacious Skies." Mrs. L. C. Vereen then led an impressive candlelight pledge service, lighting a candle to serve as a symbol of the light which would go out from this sanctuary to all parts of the world. Each district secretary lit her candle from this light as she made the pledge for her district:

|-------------------------------|------------|
| Burlington District | $1,435.00 |
| Durham District | 1,700.00 |
| Elizabeth City District | 1,200.00 |
| Fayetteville District | 2,000.00 |
| Goldsboro District | 1,225.00 |
| New Bern District | 1,275.00 |
| Raleigh District | 3,965.00 |
| Rocky Mount District | 1,250.00 |
| Wilmington District | 550.00 |

Miss Stott presented the combined pledges of $14,600 to Mrs. Turlington as president of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, following which "O Lord of Life" was sung as a solo. The district secretaries lit the candles of the delegates, and after the benediction the service closed with a candlelight recessional.

Miss Lillie Smith presided for the morning watch service at 8 o'clock Sunday in the sanctuary. After the singing of the Guild hymn Dr. Harkness gave the communion meditation on "Factors that Confront Us in Ourselves." She began with two thoughts which she believed very much belonged together: "This do in remembrance of Me" and "Abide in Me." Dr. Harkness mentioned several ancient and perennial enemies of the soul which confront us all and against which we must struggle, these being our sin, our anxieties, and the inevitability of death. If we would abide in Christ, we must become more and more familiar with our Lord by reading the Bible again and again. We also abide in Christ through our participation in corporate worship and through our devoted service. She hoped that, as we left this place where we have had a holy fellowship together, we would go in a deeper fellowship with Christ. The hymn, "We Thank Thee, Lord," was sung, and the sacrament of Holy Communion was administered by the Rev. Mr. Ruark.

At the Sunday morning worship service Mr. Ruark in his sermon stated that our responsibility is greater in a time like this because the need is greater and that the greatest outpourings of God's Spirit come in times of man's greatest need. He mentioned several important things we can do in making the most of the time God has given us. We can pray, we can make our choices according to Christ, and we can interpret and carry on our daily work as a calling from God. He quoted, "Every act of love and understanding is a little stone for the wall that cuts off war," and pointed out that we can build on this wall in many ways, reaching out through our church with deeds of love to men everywhere.

Miss Stott presided at the Sunday luncheon meeting which was held at 12:30 in Josh Bullock's Ballroom, the invocation being given by Mrs. Ernest Harding. A registration of 290 Guild delegates plus guests was reported, and the amount of the love offering at the communion service was $225.83. This was to go to the Emma Gray Dormitory at Paine College.

Mrs. Harriet Fralix, chairman of the Special Memberships Committee, then announced that we had come to one of the highlights of our annual meeting each year, the time when as a Conference we honor some of those who have given loyally of their time and talents. She presented an honorary membership pin to Mrs. R. L. Pugh. Miss Elizabeth Young was then presented an honorary membership pin by Mrs. J. M. Carraway, Mrs. Ernest Harding one by Miss Lillie Smith, and Mrs. W. T. Cline one by Miss Sarah Godfrey. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was given by Miss Carol Sledge, chairman:

It has been said that "all good things must come to an end." However we could not end this eighteenth annual meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the North Carolina Conference before expressing our sincere appreciation for the many blessings received this weekend in Rocky Mount.

For the long hours of advance planning that we might be better able to meet the "Factors that Confront Us;"

For the warm hospitality and cordial welcome of our local hosts: First Methodist Church, the Rev. Henry G. Ruark, Mrs. Lena Gray, District Secretary, Mrs. L. G. Hooks, Mrs. R. Randall Smith, president of First Church Wesleyan Service Guild, Mrs. Nell Worrell, president of Clark Street Guild, and Mrs. Irene Moody, president of St. Paul Guild.

For Barbara Whitley and each individual contributing her time and talent in making this 21st birthday one to be long remembered.

For Juanita Stott and each conference officer of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild for their dedicated leadership.

Especially have we been blessed with the presence of Dr. Georgia Harkness and her wonderful messages aiding us in knowing that we "may be sowers of the seed" and "love the life of Christian fidelity which Christ has placed within our grasp" in our world, our church and ourselves.

For Barbara Jean Maynor for her informative "picture" of the work of the Pembroke area.

For the fellowship of our delicious meals and the guests we were privileged to meet, the realization that we are "over 21," and the "call" to Atlantic City by the Aberdeen Guild.

For the impressive pledge service led by Mrs. L. C. Vereen.

For the beauty of the flowers and music, for the organist and soloists.

For Lena Sears' and Mary Gardner's publicity and Mrs. Houser's display of literature.

For all the courtesies extended to us and even those things we may not have mentioned.

For the spiritual blessing of Holy Communion, and the morning worship services we give thanks.

At this hour we yet have a treat in store for us—a tour of North Carolina Wesleyan College—thanks to the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas A. Collins.

So may we resolve that in receiving the blessings of God through His children, we may in turn try to be a blessing to others, to put our gratitude into action.

MISS CAROL SLEDGE, Chairman
MISS EDNA CREWS
MRS ERNEST HARDING

Mrs. Boyd expressed to Miss Stott the deep appreciation of the Guild for her fine work as conference secretary this past year. Miss Stott thanked all the outgoing officers for their devoted service and then asked the new officers to stand. Dr. Harkness gave a prayer of dedication for these new officers and those who are continuing in their work.

The meeting was closed with a lovely service, using a fellowship circle bound together with a golden cord held by all those present and the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." The benediction was given by Mrs. C. H. Boyd.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD COMMITTEE MEETING, RALEIGH, N. C., SEPTEMBER 9, 1961

The meeting was opened with prayer by Miss Juanita Stott, Conference Secretary. She then welcomed members of the committee who were present and conveyed regrets from several who were not able to attend. Reports from the district secretaries and conference officers were given as follows:

Miss Sarah Godfrey, acting secretary of the Burlington District, reported that a definite date for the district meeting had not been set but it would be in October at Front Street Church, Burlington. She felt that the solution to our problem of obtaining new members and officers for the Guild would be found in organizing the young working women. She planned to contact some person in each church in the district regarding the possibility of getting this group interested in forming new Guild units.

Miss Edna Crews, Durham District secretary, announced that the district meeting would be held in Oxford one Sunday in October. She was making plans to try to get more Guild units started, especially in Chapel Hill and in some of the other churches in Durham. She had not yet held a coaching conference, and Miss Stott mentioned the possibility of having this at the same time as the district meeting.

Mrs. Ernest Harding, Elizabeth City District secretary, stated that an officers' training day had been held and work lined up for the year. The district meeting was planned for October 15 with Mrs. J. M. Carraway as a speaker. She felt it might be a good idea to have the district meeting and coaching conference at the same time, especially in districts where long distances were involved.

In the absence of the Fayetteville, Goldsboro and New Bern District secretaries it was announced that the Goldsboro District had held a coaching conference and the district meeting would be on October 29 in Snow Hill. No date had been set for the New Bern or Fayetteville District meetings.

Mrs. W. T. Cline, secretary of the Raleigh District, planned a coaching conference later in September at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh and the district meeting in Louisburg in October. She had attended a district executive committee meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and also one of their district meetings.

Mrs. Lena Gray, secretary of the Rocky Mount District, stated that they had their coaching conference at an evening meeting with the best attendance they had ever had. The district meeting was to be in Conetoe sometime in October and she was considering having it at night, also.

Miss Carol Sledge, Wilmington District secretary, reported one prospect for a new Guild in the district. Their meeting was to be at Grace Church, Wilmington, in October, and she had wondered if the coaching conference could not be held at the same time. It was generally felt that the coaching conference should be held earlier than the district meeting but that the situation in each district had to be considered and this question left up to the district secretary. Several suggestions were made as to how these two meetings could be combined effectively.

Miss Lillie Smith, acting chairman of Spiritual Life, reported that she had attended the Child Weekend at Junaluska and the Weekend of Study at Duke, where she held a clinic with eleven in attendance. She had sent out letters and Spiritual Life Packets and material for the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial to each unit.

Mrs. W. C. Gardner, chairman of Missionary Education and Service, reported on the Weekend of Study which she felt had been quite successful. Total registration was eighty plus four instructors, and all districts were represented and all district secretaries present except one. Several suggestions and criticisms which had been brought out in the evaluation sheets were discussed. One of these was that no particular teaching aids for presenting the study courses were given by the instructors. It was mentioned that these were presented in the Woman's Society at a district seminar, and the suggestion was made that a small seminar on the study courses be held at the coaching conferences in each district to take care of this need. Mrs. Gardner announced that a set of slides on our work in Cuba was available which could be used in connection with the study course on Latin America and she hoped the Guilds in the conference would use these as much as possible. She planned to get a letter out right away, so that a schedule for the slides could be set up.

Mrs. J. M. Carraway, chairman of Christian Social Relations, had sent out one communication and was beginning to get responses to this. She felt that we needed to present the Charter of Racial Policies to the local Guilds again for ratification and also felt that some means of spiritual preparation was advisable. Mrs. Fralix suggested that, since the district was the next step from the conference, possibly the Charter should be brought up at the district meetings before being taken to the local units again. She stated that she had a commitment service which had been used in another conference that she would be glad to get to Mrs. Carraway for consideration as a suitable means of presenting this.

Mrs. D. C. Fussell, chairman of Supply Work, stated that the supply giving was always above the askings and she really felt that more stress should be placed on raising our pledge to missions. She had sent out one letter and planned to get out another about our supply work.

Miss Sarah Godfrey, chairman of Nominations, asked that we all keep in mind the vacancies that are coming up and make any recommendations we possibly can to help fill them.

Miss Stott brought out that one area in which she felt we needed to make some progress in the Guild was in district organization, stating that some conferences have district chairmen of lines of work. She thought that we might consider moving out in this direction and possibly try to have three chairmen in the districts, those of Spiritual Life, Missionary Education and Service, and Christian Social Relations. Some discussion was given to this, and it was suggested that we stress this year the activation of each district committee with a view to further organization later on and that the Long-Range Planning Committee study this and make a recommendation.

Miss Stott announced that some plans had already been made for our Eighteenth Annual Meeting, which is to be held in Rocky Mount April 7 and 8, 1962, with the three Guild units there working together for the meeting. She had written to Dr. Georgia Harkness about being our speaker and hoped to hear something definite from her before long. Mrs. Frank Fralix suggested that we might ask Mrs. Harmon, Southeastern Jurisdiction Wesleyan Service Guild Secretary, to attend and speak at one session.

Mrs. Turlington, president, stated that she had been attending several meetings this summer, among them the Town and Country meeting at Junaluska. She reported particularly on the North Carolina Seminar at Fort Bragg the last of August on the subject of communism.

Mrs. L. C. Vereen, treasurer, reported an increase in giving for the Woman's Society and the Guild during the first quarter of this year over the first quarter of last year, the Guild being responsible for about half of this increase. There had been an increase in pledge to missions and also in memberships. She suggested that a financial gift be made at the close of each study course and that the Guilds report on this separately from the Woman's Society, as she felt sure the Guild was doing more along this line than was reflected in her reports. It was felt that the district pledge service probably accounted for the increase in pledge to missions and it was urged that each district secretary plan to have at least a short pledge service at the meeting again this year.

Mrs. C. H. Boyd, secretary of promotion, stated that in the North Carolina Conference about half of the Methodist women are not members of either the Woman's Society or the Guild. The Woman's Division is planning a study of what is happening to our women and why they are not members, and each Methodist church is to have the same type of study or census in connection with evangelistic services, a membership enlistment program being planned. She pointed out that each of us should feel individually responsible for reaching these women.

Mrs. H. A. Davis urged that in stressing membership we be sure to make all the women feel they are definitely wanted. She stated that there had been a breakdown in district work across the nation and the Woman's Division is trying to do something about it. She asked that we be alert to our special projects in North Carolina, to Brooks-Howell Home in Asheville which is to be dedicated on November 5 and to the Student Center at Greenville which is being set up under a Board of Directors and which this year has 1157 Methodist students to serve at East Carolina College.

Miss Mary Gardner, chairman of Public Relations, stated she would like to give the Guild more coverage in the Christian Advocate and asked that news of general interest in the local units and districts be given to her. She had attended the Guild Weekend of Study and there was to be a story in the Advocate about this.

Mrs. L. C. Vereen announced that the Harriet Fralix Scholarship Fund was to be used for Africa. She had received a letter from the Woman's Division which is setting aside funds to be used as soon as a student is available.

Miss Stott appointed several committees in preparation for the Annual Meeting: Committee for Dedication of Program: Mrs. Fussell, chairman, Mrs. Vereen and Mrs. Gray, and Committee on Special Memberships with Mrs. Gardner, chairman, Mrs. Carraway and Miss Smith. She also handed out a list of special dates to remember and urged that each unit plan an observance of Guild Month in January. The Weekend of Study at Duke would probably be August 11 and 12, 1962. A suggestion from Junaluska was that the Weekend might be made a spiritual life retreat, also, and it had been suggested that the Guild and Woman's Society plan retreats together when possible.

Mrs. Fralix brought up the matter of making a formal recommendation to continue the support of Barbara Jean Smith. A motion was made, seconded and passed that the North Carolina Conference Wesleyan Service Guild take Barbara Jean Smith as special project again this year.

It was announced that the Long-Range Planning Committee would meet immediately following this meeting, with Mrs. Harriet Fralix as chairman, and the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Davis.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD COMMITTEE MEETING, RALEIGH, N. C., FEBRUARY 10, 1962

The meeting, with Miss Juanita Stott, Conference Secretary, presiding, was opened with prayer by Miss Lillie Smith. Miss Stott welcomed those present and reports were given in response to the roll call as follows:

Miss Edna Crews, Durham District secretary, reported that she still had hopes of getting a Guild unit started in Chapel Hill this year. They had a good district meeting in the fall and she felt that work in the district was going on very well.

Mrs. Ernest Harding, secretary of the Elizabeth City District, stated that Mrs. J. M. Carraway was speaker for their district meeting which was attended by about sixty. All units had been reporting promptly and Guild Month was emphasized in January. She had plans to meet with a night circle the following week about organizing a unit and had a prospect of one in Currituck. She asked about keeping surplus money in a treasury over to the next year and it was suggested that she talk with Mrs. Vereen about this after the meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Young, Goldsboro District secretary, reported a delightful district meeting, this being held in Snow Hill with forty-eight members and three visitors present. The district ratified the Charter of Racial Policies at this meeting largely, she felt, as result of the talk by Mrs. Harriet Fralix. A pledge service was held, each unit increasing its pledge to missions, and a district nominating committee was elected. In response to a question which she raised it was pointed out that a district secretary is elected at the fall district meeting, is confirmed by the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the spring and assumes office on June 1.

Mrs. R. L. Pugh, secretary of the New Bern District, had held a coaching conference in October with Mrs. C. H. Boyd in charge and felt that this had been quite successful. Barbara Jean Maynor was present for their district meeting in November, and attendance was better than it had been the previous year. She mentioned the possibility of a new unit at Westminster Church in Kinston and had plans to meet with that group in March. Miss Stott suggested, if possible, that new units be organized and officers elected by May, in time to start off at the beginning of next year.

Mrs. W. T. Cline, Raleigh District secretary, reported an interesting district meeting and coaching conference, with a leader for each line of work and about seventy-five attending. Mrs. Vereen was the speaker and also led the pledge service. Mrs. Cline stated that she understood there was to be a new Guild unit at Trinity Church and gave credit to the Woman's Society of Christian Service for this.

Mrs. Lena Gray, secretary of the Rocky Mount District, reported a fine district meeting. This was held at night and attendance was much better than it had been previously. A film on Christian Social Relations and a pledge service were used. They are all looking forward to having the Guild Annual Meeting in Rocky Mount and are working toward this.

Miss Carol Sledge, Wilmington District secretary, stated that she was still trying to start some new units in the district. There were thirty present for their meeting in the fall and one unit has increased its pledge. She felt that the presence of one or more conference officers at the next district meeting would help in stimulating interest.

Miss Lillie Smith, chairman of Spiritual Life, pointed out that it is quite difficult to find out whether we have grown spiritually or not. She had sent out one communication to each unit since the last meeting and had encouraged prayer groups and the use of literature. She called particular attention to the Prayer Calendar, and Miss Stott suggested that she encourage each local chairman of Spiritual Life to secure and use one and possibly give one to the Commission on Missions in her church.

It was announced that Mrs. W. C. Gardner had resigned as chairman of Missionary Education and Service. Mrs. Vereen stated that teachers had been secured for the School of Missions at Duke this summer and the same teachers are to be used for the Guild Weekend of Study August 11 and 12. The slides on Cuba had been in great demand and are still available to Guild Units from Mrs. Gardner.

Mrs. J. M. Carraway, chairman of Christian Social Relations, stated that the film dealing with this line of work had been in almost constant use and she felt she had had wonderful response this year. The previous week she had heard from Mrs. Bender, who asked that telegrams be sent to the president requesting that favorable action be taken on the bond vote for the UN and that the ban on atmospheric nuclear testing be continued, and she had complied with this request. The motion was made, seconded and carried that the Guild Committee endorse Mrs. Carraway's action in this matter.

Mrs. D. C. Fussell, chairman of Supply Work, reported on supply giving for the first two quarters of this year. This showed some decrease in comparison with the same period of last year, but she stated that the Guild had always more than met the askings for supply projects.

Miss Sarah Godfrey reported that the local units in the Burlington District were functioning well and had observed Guild Month in January. She then announced that Mrs. Joseph W. Smith had accepted the chairmanship of Missionary Education and Service and that a secretary had been found for the Burlington District. Miss Stott stated that she had given her resignation as conference secretary effective June 1 to the Executive Committee of the Woman's Society, following which Miss Godfrey presented the name of Mrs. C. H. Boyd for the new Guild Conference Secretary. The question of installation was brought up by Mrs. Turlington, and it was pointed out that Mrs. Boyd would be filling out an unexpired term and could be confirmed and installed at the Woman's Society annual meeting in March.

Miss Mary Gardner, chairman of Public Relations, expressed the hope that the district secretaries would send her information on any new units. She planned to be working on publicity for the Guild Annual Meeting soon.

Mrs. Turlington, president, gave some of the plans for the Woman's Society meeting in Wilson March 20, 21 and 22 and hoped that each Guild unit would send a delegate. Mr. Phillip Cartwright is expected back for this meeting and an excellent program is planned.

Mrs. Harriet Fralix reported on work of the Long-Range Planning Committee, reading the minutes of the last meeting. A revised membership list for this committee was recommended, members to be on it by virtue of office. A check list was worked up to present for approval for use next year in the Guild units, and standing rules were prepared and approved for submission to the Conference Guild Committee. These rules were discussed and some revisions made, following which Mrs. Fralix moved that the standing rules as prepared and revised be adopted. This was seconded by Mrs. Fussell and passed by the Committee. The following recommendations of the Long-Range Planning Committee were adopted:

1. That in our long-range planning we look forward to the implementation of the racial charter.

2. That we make an effort to secure Dr. Willa Player or a comparable speaker at an opportune time, either at an Annual Meeting or a Weekend of Study.

3. That we organize on a district level with the district committee being composed of the following officers in addition to the district secretary: Chairmen of Spiritual Life, Christian Social Relations and Missionary Education and Service.

4. That material from conference officers be relayed to them for distribution to the local units, postage to be included in the conference officer's expense account.

5. That any overage in supply money for this year be sent to the Brooks-Howell Home in Asheville.

The check list as prepared was studied and accepted, also. It was suggested that it be used now to see what has been accomplished during this year and then used again next year as a guide and check.

Mrs. Cutchins stated that she was delighted to be present and thought it was most inspiring to hear all the things the Guild is doing.

Mrs. L. C. Vereen, treasurer, had a good overall report for the first two quarters of the year, there being a substantial increase in giving to missions and a slight decrease in other lines of work. However, she was concerned about the decrease in the Week of Prayer offering. It had been requested by the Woman's Division that consideration be given to sending money received over and above the pledge this year to Emma Gray Dormitory at Paine College. Mrs. Gray moved that this be left up to the Treasurer. After some discussion it was suggested that the communion offering at annual meeting be given toward this project. Mrs. Gray then withdrew her motion and Mrs. Fralix moved that the love offering at the Guild Annual Meeting to be donated to the Emma Gray Dormitory at Paine College. This was seconded and passed.

Miss Stott announced Mrs. Carraway's resignation as chairman of Christian Social Relations and stated that she felt the Guild owed her many thanks for the progress made in this line of work with her as chairman.

Mrs. C. H. Boyd, secretary of Promotion, felt that much progress had been made this past year and that the kind of action reported denoted a growth in spiritual values. She was not happy over the record in membership, however, as both the Guild and the Woman's Society have lost in this respect. She felt that one of the greatest problems confronting both groups was that of reaching the women who are not a part of either. A united witness program has just been completed in our conference, and she suggested that membership could be increased by contacting these new members of the church. The Woman's Society is planning to have a district officers' training program at North Carolina Wesleyan College June 6 and 7, with a Spiritual Life Retreat beginning at noon on June 7 and closing at noon on June 8. It was moved, seconded and passed that the Guild district secretaries and chairmen of lines of work be included in this training program.

Mrs. H. A. Davis talked briefly about the annual meeting of the Board of Missions which she had attended, mentioning in particular some of the things the Guild has been doing. The Guild had sent out a group of books to the Board members to read and discuss, and she recommended one of these to each member of this committee, "New Life for the Church." The tenth anniversary of the Racial Charter was observed and a revision of this voted on for the next quadrennium. The Guild had been the group that took this charter and reworked it, making a number of revisions which were accepted by the entire Board of Missions.

Mrs. Norman Wood stated that she and Miss Gardner were working on a book about the first seven years after unification for display at the annual meeting of the Woman's Society in March. She gave some comparative figures on the Wesleyan Service Guild of this conference during those years.

Plans for the Guild Annual Meeting were then discussed. Dr. Georgia Harkness is to be the principal speaker and the theme will be "Factors That Confront Us." Miss Stott stated that the Guild is to give Dr. Harkness at least a $50.00 honorarium and pay her expenses. Barbara Jean Maynor is to speak at the meeting, also. The committee decided to give Barbara Jean a wedding present of money and $15.00 was collected for this.

Miss Stott appointed a Committee on Resolutions with Miss Carol Sledge as chairman, Miss Edna Crews and Mrs. Ernest Harding. Mrs. Harriet Fralix was appointed to replace Mrs. Gardner as Chairman of the Special Memberships Committee, the other members being Miss Smith and Mrs. Carraway. Instead of a service of spiritual preparation for the Guild Committee just prior to the opening of the Annual Meeting, it was decided to have an "Open Altar" in the chapel this year for all delegates. Miss Smith suggested that a letter be sent to each Guild unit introducing Dr. Harkness and telling about the "Open Altar" plan. The Quadrennial Assembly and Guild Weekend are to be held in Atlantic City in May and publicity had gone out to each local president regarding these important meetings. A IUN Seminar is planned immediately following the Guild Weekend. The dates for the Jurisdictional Guild Weekend at Junaluska are July 6-8.

Miss Stott thanked everyone for their attendance and their participation, and the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Davis.
